What do United Methodists do best?

V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

A. Minutes

Friday, June 4, 2010 – 12:45 p.m.

And Are We Yet Alive was sung by the members of the Conference to open the thirty-ninth session of the Alaska United Methodist Conference. Bishop Hagiya then offered an opening prayer.

Debra Lindsay-Hudgins established the bar of the Conference.

Several guests were introduced:

- Cheryl Hemmerle from UCOM, who led the “Rethink Church” Workshop that was offered June 3, to rave reviews by attendees

- Craig Parrish, Conference Treasurer
- Bruce Galvin, Conference Benefits Officer
- Tom Wilson, Executive Director of the Foundation of the Northwest
- People from churches in the Conference who were not voting members, but were interested in the proceedings

Hospitality was extended to the Conference by Jon Disburg, pastor of Anchor Park UMC; Crystal Feaster stressed the importance of everyone picking up their registration packet. Patti Butcher, Admin. Assistant at APUMC, offered to handle any questions or concerns.

Motion by Charles Martindell (Homer) – That a future Annual Conference be held in Homer. Rationale: Holding the AUMC at other mission sites throughout the conference will strengthen our connection to each other. Motion to postpone a vote on this motion until the final plenary. Motion seconded and passed by a 2/3 majority.

Members of the Conference were asked to use the microphone whenever addressing the body, and to identify themselves and the church or agency they are from before stating their business.

Members of the Conference were also reminded that any changes to the budget totaling $1000 or more must be presented to the body in writing at least 24 hours before the budget is voted on, so if budget changes are to be recommended, they should be provided in a timely fashion for consideration by the voting members.

The members of the Conference were then dismissed to Lay and Clergy Sessions.

Plenary Session #1 – 2:30 p.m.

Report on the results of voting on Constitutional Amendments from 2009 Annual Conference as reported by the Council of Bishops – Lonnie Brooks

The Council of Bishops, after counting the results of voting by United Methodists worldwide, reported that Amendments VIII, IX, XVII, XIX, AND XXII were approved. All others failed to gain approval.

Lay Leader's Address – Lonnie Brooks

As I said in the brief written report I submitted for inclusion in the Preconference Handbook, as the Lay Leader of this Conference I have the opportunity to be in groups of United Methodists from all across the connection that help to define who we are as a Church. Of those of you who read that, I'm sure there are some who were surprised to know there are at least seven separate bodies, most of them authorized directly by General Conference, at work to reshape how we will live out our call to make disciples of Jesus Christ, and that number doesn't count the ones which are part of the ongoing, permanent structure of the Church, like the Council of Bishops, the general agencies, and the Connectional Table. Some of these studies are continued from prior quadrennia, like the Commission on the Study of Ministry, on which Rose McLean and Bishop Hagiya both serve, but others of them, like the Unity Task Force, chaired by Bishop Sally Dyck, are new.

One committee, formed by the Council of Bishops and the Connectional Table, originally called the Steering Committee, but now called the Call to Action Committee, is at work on nothing less than an attempt to rethink the entire connectional structure of the Church, including its conferences and agencies. This group is asking questions like, Do we really need 13 general agencies to carry out the work of the Church between sessions of the General Conference? Can 13 agencies, directed by 13 independent groups of members elected by a variety of processes, operate in a unified way to carry out the Church's mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ? Would we be better served by fewer agencies all under the direction of a single board of directors who would meet periodically to monitor the work of all the remaining agencies and provide direction and correction where needed?

It is good and healthy for any institution occasionally—some would say continually—to step back from itself to examine its goals and to ensure that its structure is designed to facilitate the achieving of those goals. And we have to remember that every social system, like every physical system, produces exactly what it is designed to produce. But, let me hold up a caution sign that says that as we rethink Church, we understand where the limits are, if we start with the premise that we still intend to be the Church.

Among the things in which I am engaged is the newly formed United Methodist Committee on Faith and Order. The intent of those of us who were involved in the conception and proposal of this body was to create a permanent part of the structure of the Church that would bring together bishops, academicians, clergy serving local churches, and lay persons to think together about theological issues that confront us in the current milieu in which we are immersed, across the whole international Church.

Without question, we've been successful in getting the right mix of people together. There are 24 members including 3 laics, 6 bishops, and 6 members from academia named by the Association of United Methodist Theological Schools.

If you've taken any interest at all in what The United Methodist Church has said theologically over the last several years you will know that we've produced two extraordinarily important documents in By Water and the Spirit and This Holy Mystery, respectively our statements of our theology of baptism and Holy Communion. The missing piece in the opinion of many of us has been a formal statement of our theology of the Church—our ecclesiology, if you will. Most, if not all, of us who are members of the Committee are hopeful that we'll be able to present to General Conference in 2012 a paper that will fill that gap.

That means that we are part of the conversation to rethink Church. Now first of all, I have to tell you that from the beginning of the choice of that slogan, Rethink Church, I've had reservations about it. You see, thinking is a contemplative enterprise, and an intellectual endeavor by definition is not a matter of action. The Church got diverted for several centuries into being primarily that kind of project with the monastic movement, which at its worst saw some of the best and brightest sitting in caves in the North African desert staring at walls. So, as we rethink Church we have to remember that if all our thinking doesn't culminate in some action and work, then we wasted our time.

In any case, the Committee on Faith and Order might be starting from a bit of a different place than some of the other groups that are engaged in that task, because we are extremely aware that there are some features of the Church that are indispensable, which means that without them, there is no Church. Historically, for example, we know that there are four marks of the Church that are in that category. The authentic Church is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. There are some marks of a Church that are so Wesleyan that it is hardly conceivable that a Church can remain Methodist if it doesn't bear them, such as being connectional. We've categorized various marks of the Church as being either essential, beneficial, or nice. For that last one, some call it optional. Actually, Randy Maddox of Duke says it all in Latin, but I don't think it adds all that much weight to the concept. We're still at work on precisely which marks are in which category, and I invite you to work on that question with us.

There is not much about this kind of study that, on the face of it, excites the imagination. But the same was true, for example, of the project to revise the United Methodist Hymnal, until the committee formed in 1984 announced its intent to eliminate "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "America the Beautiful" from the forthcoming publication. You will note that both are still in the hymnal. The same was true of the study of baptism, until the committee announced that it was proposing that baptism, alone, made one a member of the local church, The United Methodist Church, and the universal church. You will note that the final result was a compromise that baptism makes one a baptized member and that taking the vows of membership makes one a professing member. That was true of the study of Holy Communion, until the committee proposed closing the Lord's table to any who have not been baptized. You will note that our liturgy says, "Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin, and seek to live in peace with one another," even though the final document said that the normal order will be for baptism to precede reception of Communion.

I'm not sure what the attention grabbing proposal from the Committee on Faith and Order might be, but the one I'm proposing is that we suggest that it is time to do away with a session of the annual conference exclusively attended by clerics. I'm not proposing to prohibit the clergy from ever meeting together apart from lay members of the annual conference, but I am proposing that such a so called executive session not be considered a meeting of the annual conference empowered to do the business of the annual conference. This would, of course, mean empowering the laity in making decisions about ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy. It is absurd, in my judgment, for the Church to continue to pretend that lay people have neither interest in nor expertise for making those decisions. The stake of the laity in that process is at least as significant as that of the clergy. Now that would be a discussion generating proposal, don't you think?

Committee on Nominations Report – David Beckett

Council on Finance and Administration – Linda Dunham and Craig Parrish

Purpose of CCFA: to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the annual conference.

It has been a productive year for your CCFA. With the clarity of reporting from our Conference Treasurer our budgeting and planning process moved forward smoothly. The budget being proposed for 2011 is one that supports increased ministries of the Conference without significant increase in apportionments. Our Conference's fiscal policies and procedures have been compiled – annual review and revision will ensure consistency as staff and committee memberships change. We are blessed to have a strong financial position and a strong CCFA team working on the Conference's behalf. And, as always, we are blessed by our local congregations who understand the connectional nature of the United Methodist Church and support UMC ministries through faithful payment of apportioned funds.

Recommendations:

- 1) Yearly requests for funding from the Alaska United Methodist Conference budget should, whenever possible, be submitted to the AUMC-CFA prior to the AUMC Winter Meetings. Requests for the 2012 budget shall be submitted to the CCFA no later than the conclusion of Winter Meetings 2011.

2) The apportionment grade figure used to determine local church apportionments will be the average over a three-year period of one-third of the membership grade figure and two thirds of the local church expenses. The 2011 grade point figure will be based on the statistics recorded in the 2007, 2008, and 2009 Journals of the Alaska United Methodist Conference.
(The local expense grade figure is each church's local expenses divided by the total local expenses of all churches. Local church expenditures include clergy support plus 25% of the pastor's salary as established by the Church / Charge Conference if the pastor is provided a parsonage and all other church expenses excluding:

1. Rent payment for church facilities
2. Principle and interest paid on indebtedness
3. Payments on building improvements
4. Non-apportioned benevolences paid by the local church
5. Apportionments

3) All churches are strongly encouraged to pay their apportionments in 10 equal installments beginning in January and ending in October.

4) Apportionments for new churches will be scheduled following their charter according to this formula:

- a. Year One: No apportionments
- b. Year Two: 1/3 of regular apportionments
- c. Year Three: 2/3 of regular apportionments
- d. Year Four: Full apportionments

5) There shall be a General Fund established, maintained, and administered by the Council on Finance and Administration. The Fund Balance shall provide working capital (cash flow) for the operation of the Conference, emergencies, and unexpected needs that arise from time to time. The annual net operating results in the Connectional Clergy Support, Connectional Administration, World Service and Conference Benevolence, and other General Funds not otherwise designated will provide the basis for this Fund.

6) The following general budgeted funds will have designated fund balances. The annual net operations of these funds will be transferred to the respective designated fund balance rather than revert to the General Fund:

- a. Office Furniture & Equipment Replacement Fund
- b. Delegate Expenses
- c. Quadrennial Training Travel Fund
- d. Health Insurance Fund
- e. Pension Subsidy Fund
- f. Annual Conference Meeting Fund
- g. Emergency Maintenance Fund
- h. Mission Aid Fund
- i. Moving Fund
- j. Equitable Compensation Fund
- k. Mission Property Management Fund

7) All persons traveling for the Alaska United Methodist Conference meetings of Committees, Commissions, and for the Annual Conference are expected to travel at the lowest possible fare, including advanced ticket purchases, partnership tickets and PFD tickets when available. While the use of the conference travel agent is available to all persons traveling on AUMC business, people are encouraged to do their own research and purchasing of tickets in order to find the lowest possible fare, submitting the receipt to the Conference Treasurer for reimbursement. Any fare submitted for reimbursement that is deemed by the Conference Treasurer not to be the lowest possible fare will be reimbursed only to the power of the lowest possible fare.

8) The following have been designated as Alaska United Methodist Conference

Advance Specials:

- a. Alaska Children's Services
- b. Birchwood Camp
- c. Eagle River Camp
- d. Nome Community Center
- e. Alaska Pacific University

All members of the Alaska United Methodist Conference are strongly encouraged to bring to the attention of United Methodists in Alaska these opportunities for giving.

9) An Emergency Maintenance Loan Fund was established by action of the 1996 Annual Meeting of the AMC for loans to local churches for emergency assistance with property, under policies developed by the Board of Trustees under the Administrative Unit.

10) It shall be the policy of the Alaska United Methodist Conference to pay 100% of all General Conference Apportionments. These funds are: Episcopal Fund, General; Conference Administration, Interdenominational Cooperation Fund, World Service Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Black College Fund, Africa University Fund.

Fiscal Policies and Procedures - Linda DunhamIntroduction

In fiscal matters, as in all others, the Alaska United Methodist Conference (AUMC) shall be governed by the following bodies of law in descending order of priority: the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church; the Rules of the AUMC; and the financial policies of the annual conference which is contracted by the AUMC to provide treasury services.

Policies and ProceduresA. Year-End

The fiscal year for the AUMC shall be the calendar year (January 1-December 31). (Reference: AUMC Rule R6.3500)

CF&A shall set the date yearly for the closing of the financial records of the AUMC, and all remittances must be received and are due by the established date in order for the church to receive credit for the fiscal year. (Reference: AUMC Rule R6.3501)

At the close of the fiscal year, the annual net operations will be transferred to the General Fund, with the exception of the following general budgeted funds which will have designated fund balances. The annual net operations of these funds will be transferred to the respective designated fund balance rather than revert to the General Fund:

- a. Office Furniture and Equipment Replacement Fund
- b. Delegate Expenses
- c. Quadrennial Training Travel Fund
- d. Health Insurance Fund
- e. Pension Subsidy Fund
- f. Annual Conference Meeting Fund
- g. Emergency Maintenance Fund
- h. Mission Aid Fund
- i. Moving Fund
- j. Equitable Compensation Fund
- k. Mission Property Management Fund

B. Fiscal Management

The Conference Treasurer, recommended by CF&A and elected by the Conference, is responsible for the day-to-day fiscal management of the AUMC. The Treasurer works within the guidelines of the UMC, the AUMC Rules, the accounting standards and procedures as described in the Accounting Manual of the Treasurer's office and the AUMC approved budget.

There shall be a General Fund established, maintained, and administered by the Council on Finance and Administration. The Fund Balance shall provide working capital (cash flow) for the operation of the Conference, emergencies, and unexpected needs that arise from time to time. The annual net operating results in the Connectional Clergy Support, Connectional Administration, World Service and Conference Benevolence and other General Funds not otherwise designated will provide the basis for this Fund. CFA will set an amount to be held, as a minimum balance, in the General Fund as a reserve. Funds in excess of that reserve may be considered for funding of special projects or may be considered as income for future annual budgets.

All funds will be reviewed annually by the CFA, identifying committees, agency or task force responsible for putting the funds into ministries. CFA is responsible for ensuring that those bodies are aware of funds held for ministry.

C. Accounting Standards

The AUMC will cooperate with the General Council on Finance and Administration and with the General Board of Discipleship in promoting and standardizing the financial recording and reporting system for the AUMC and in the local churches of the Conference.

D. Audit

As soon as practical, following the year-end, an audit of the financial statements of the AUMC shall be made by a certified public accountant selected by the CF&A. Funds to provide for this audit will be included in the annual budget of the AUMC. The report will be reviewed by the Treasurer and the CF&A and will be available to others on request.

E. Investments

As per the Book of Discipline, the CFA has the authority and responsibility to develop policies regarding the investment of conference funds with the aim of maximizing funds available for mission.

F. Gift Receipt Policy

Gifts (cash and property) to the Alaska United Methodist Conference will be handled according to the procedure outlined in the Rules of Order of the AUMC (R.21).

G. Budget

Yearly requests for funding from the Alaska United Methodist Conference budget should, whenever possible, be submitted to the CFA prior to the AUMC Winter Meetings. If the amount requested is significantly higher than the previous year's budgeted amount, a detailed justification for the increase should be included.

H. Loans

For any loans granted from Conference funds, the authorizing body shall provide the office of the Treasurer with official minutes of the meeting in which the loan was voted for approval so that documents may be completed detailing the loan payment terms and so that loan payments may be properly credited.

I. Reports

The Treasurer will be responsible to see that full financial statements (statements of assets, liabilities and equity and statements of income and expense) are prepared and presented to the CF&A at each CF&A meeting for review. These reports will also be available upon request to the conference office or the office of the Treasurer. Questions regarding income, payments and fund balances will be addressed by the Treasurer's office as needed.

J. Authorizations

Requests for disbursement of conference funds will be made by written voucher indicating the fund from which payment is to be made and will include the signature of the authorizing person. Requests for disbursement will include receipts and/or any supporting documentation. Standing vouchers may be authorized for ordinary and recurring expenditures (monthly utility payments, etc.). Authorization may be given for the use of conference credit cards by employees, with documentation requirements for all charges made via these cards.

K. Implementation, Review and Revision

The fiscal policies and procedures are to be implemented by the Conference Treasurer. Recommendations for revision to the policies and procedures will be made by the CF&A.

Financial Report from 2009 – Craig Parrish

Missional Priorities – Clean Water should read $3173.10 ---- 11,229

Regional Program Councils did not spend $17K; rather they spent $4299.28

2010 receipts are down 7 percent from 2009.

Craig thanked us for allowing him to serve as our Conference Treasurer, and looks forward to continuing in that capacity.

Budget 2011 – Linda Dunham

Conference Budget is projected to increase 2.7 percent. (See p. 89-94)

First Samoan Loan Option PresentationHistory of the Loan as presented by Craig Parrish

PNW Annual Conference 2005 – Bishop Ed Paup and Conference Superintendent Rachel Lieder Simeon talked to Craig Parrish and Tom Wilson about the possibility of getting a bridge loan from PNW Board of Foundational Development so that the Samoans could purchase a building in Anchorage while awaiting approval from UMDF. PNW loaned the money; UMDF came through. PNW was removed from the picture, and the Samoans began to make $3500 monthly payments as they were able. Tom Wilson is the PNW loan officer. February 11, 2010: payments have not been made in full for some time. That affects us because UMDF holds the Annual Conference responsible when loans become delinquent. Tom was asked by Bishop Hagiya to come up with some options that might resolve the current situation.

Current Financial Situation of Samoan First UMC – David Beckett

Samoans have some different ways of dealing with money in their church. Language is also a bit of a barrier. Congregation has been divided into men, women, youth, & choir. Each of these groups has been assigned responsibility for paying specific bills other than the mortgage.

It has been estimated by experts outside the church that they can manage a monthly payment of no more than $2000.

Three Scenarios – Tom Wilson

- The Conference would issue a 28.5-year loan at 4 percent APR, which would yield a monthly payment of $2000. Funds would come from the Legacy Fund.
- The Conference would issue a 5-year loan using the 28.5 year amortization, a 4 percent interest rate, which would yield a monthly payment of $2000 and a balloon payment at the end of five years. Funds would come from the Legacy Fund.
- The current loan would be rewritten by UMDF at a lower interest rate and a 20-year amortization. This would result in a lowered payment, but the $2571.63 monthly payment is still higher than what the church can currently afford.

Why did the UMDF approve the loan? Did they do their due diligence? Has something changed with the church? No real clear understanding of how the funding decision was made by UMDF.

There are always churches that are part of our larger mission even when they are not yet capable of being fully fiscally responsible for itself and its involvement in the connection.

The Conference paused for silent prayer for discernment before making a decision.

The AUMC would still hold the real estate, even though the Legacy Fund would be reduced by $400K.

Missional Nature of the Samoan Church in Mountain View - Salitai Maga

Church is very meaningful to the members of the congregation. Church is also a community center, a place for new immigrants from Samoa to get help as they begin to assimilate into the community. Mission of the church is large, and quite different from many of our Anglo congregations. Reaches out to the numerous homeless people who live in the area. Has many children within the church community. High risk community with a significant ethnic mix. The church is considered part of the stabilization effort of that area by the Municipality of Anchorage.

Are there opportunities for the Samoan Church to rent its space to provide some additional income?

Scenario #2 – Would their timely payments to the Conference enable them to secure a commercial loan at the end of the five year term? It might, yes.

A motion was made to poll the three motions and then come up with one to vote on. Whichever scenario is adopted, that the AUMC authorize the chancellor in consultation with the Superintendent, the chair of CCFA, the chair of Admin. Unit, the Director of the Foundation of the Northwest, and the Conference Lay Leader to draft and execute a contract in compliance with the provisions of the Book of Discipline.

Vote was by ballot.

#1 – 3 votes

#2 – 47 votes

#3 – 4 votes

Voting on Scenario #2 as amended – motion carried.

Plenary #2 – Superintendent's Report – David Beckett

When God called me out of my 8th grade science classroom in Atlanta in 1979 it wasn't to the superintendency. I was on a graduate school track to one day be a principal or teach at the college level. Back then as I prepared to leave my students and colleagues at Floyd Middle School to head back to Ohio for seminary I never did see my call to ordained ministry as any more important than my call to be a Christian layperson teaching middle school science. Nor is what the bishop has asked me to do as your superintendent anymore important than the ministry offered by the laity and clergy of the Alaska Conference.

Truth be told, I never really aspired to this job. Part of the reason for coming to Alaska nearly 19 years ago was to escape the ecclesiastical ladder in my home conference of West Ohio. But I was aware that this might be a possibility. Like Jonah who ran away from where God was calling him, I even started a big fish rumor that what we really needed was an experienced superintendent who could learn Alaska. What I can tell you now is that I was wrong. After 18 years of life and ministry in Alaska it has been a gift to go to our churches and know some of the people, the history, and community.

A VIM leader went to Nome last summer and told me that it is a place of extreme poverty and third world conditions. A month later I flew to Nome for the first time and said to myself, "This is Alaska." Isn't it interesting when you look at Alaskans, not through the lens of a visitor, but through a lens of many years of living with Alaskans as one of them. One of our pastors heard his parishioner say when he learned of my appointment, "Finally, someone who understands who we are." I hope I never forget who you are as United Methodist Alaskans.

So we are here to catch a vision from God of new places for new people. To those of you receiving a new pastor, I have a bit of advice. Don't just assume that your new pastor and family have dropped into your church from the twilight zone, or that they have been in a cryogenic state awakened for the sole purpose of being your pastor. They have just said goodbye to dear friends and church family, and are likely to be in a state of grief.

In 1991 I remember well my first Sunday morning at the Soldotna church. They had an interim pastor for months and were ready for their "settled" pastor. I had just left a large youth group and a wonderful church in Ohio. I wasn't emotionally ready to be their pastor yet.

So ask your new pastor and family about those people they left to come to you. Just as you are grieving the loss of your previous pastor, so is your new pastor experiencing grief. They need some time to allow their spirit to catch up with their hearts in this new place.

One year ago I, too, left a beloved community of faith after serving for ten years, the longest pastoral tenure in my ministry. It felt strange when I returned to St. John last fall for their charge conference. My pastoral hat was not fully off, and my superintendent hat was not fully on. But I continued to pray and talk it out with my wife, Kim, and a few trusted friends. And then it happened. In January with most charge conferences completed I was suddenly okay with my new hat. I began to attend a few services at St. John. It was then that I realized that this time apart was not only helpful for Pastor John and the congregation to forge a bond, but this time was helpful to me. I needed this space to live into my new role as superintendent.

So now I am here before you having completed one year as your rookie superintendent. I have been in all of our churches, camps, and institutions during this past year. There is much to celebrate. God is doing amazing things in and through the people called United Methodist. God is caring for homeless people through a new day shelter ministry at Ketchikan First. God is showering children in Unalaska and Nome with love at their after school and evening children's ministries. One of the new things God is doing is to help those with addictions in Fairbanks find healing in a worship setting for those in recovery. God is present in Willow showing up in the form of a United Methodist offering food or wood to keep warm.

I'd like to ask Fran Lynch to stand up. This servant of our Lord has been providing Christian education in Anvik and Grayling for the past 13 years. It is with sadness that this ministry has come to an end. But it is time. Thank you, Fran, for your faithfulness and your love for our native children.

God is loving the world through outreach ministries in Girdwood, Homer, Aldersgate, Christ First, Turnagain, Chugiak, Anchor Park, and Palmer. Northstar is a small Nikiski church where the recession is real. Yet they have a vital and alive youth ministry, the largest on the Kenai Peninsula. Seward tried something new...an outreach to students at the vocational school. Moose Pass is renovating their building. Kenai built a special room for babies and young families. Soldotna and Douglas provide breakfast for hungry school children. Ninilchik's members gave generously and bought their pastor a much-needed hearing aid. New Hope did a makeover on their building and are bringing in families with children.

Churches like First Samoan, Korean, Northern Light, and First Anchorage are involved in advocacy ministries for those who have no voice. With building changes and new ministries Jewel Lake, East, St. John, and Sitka are working hard to create new places for new people to experience the healing love of Christ.

The challenges that face us are huge. We are doing church in a culture that really doesn't like organized religion. After time spent with Bishop Robert Schnase and our Bishop Hagiya most of us get it that we cannot afford to do church in the same old ways. We simply do not have a choice but to push onward, to rethink church. Our bishop has challenged us to bring in new members. I have encouraged all of our churches to invest time, passion, and resources into creating new places for new people. I have also said this, "All of us should be working to create healthy church systems whether new people are coming to us or not."

Many of our churches are on the edge of financial insecurity. Some were not able to give 100% of their apportioned giving last year. I think you all get the fact that apportionments are personal, that sister Alaska churches pick up the slack so that God may continue to do amazing things throughout Alaska. My desire would be to eliminate all talk of the "conference" as some center of power and money.

Friends, look around you. WE are the conference. Thank God for apportioned giving. When one church struggles other churches are there for you. So you were there in April when Leila, Lonnie, and I met with leaders of First Samoan UMC to share the news that their brothers and sisters in Christ wanted to ease their huge mortgage burden. I wish you could have seen the smiles and tearful eyes. The Alaska United Methodist Conference is the body of Jesus Christ.

I have been building partnerships with the Presbyterians, Lutherans, and Episcopalians. We celebrated our communion agreement with the ELCA with a grand worship service in Anchorage last winter. We have a vision for the raising up of native Christian leaders to be trained ecumenically for lay pastoral ministry in our villages. This coming year we are working with the Alaska Christian Conference to plan two major events in October and February. We are hoping to offer a balanced voice of Christianity to Alaska society. We want to speak to issues of immigration reform, homelessness, and domestic violence. I have encouraged our churches to start a ministry of sharing plastic bags filled with personal items like tooth brushes, soap, etc. with people who spend most of their lives on our streets. The goal is to build relationships with people, to look them in the eye, and to know their name. Pastor Michael Burke of St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Anchorage told me the story of driving with his kids. They often remark, "Hey Dad, there's Bill. Let's stop and say hi." That's the kind of ministry I envision in our communities when United Methodists get the Holy Spirit fire to transform our world.

So I have spent this past year getting oriented to our ministries. Being a superintendent is unlike being a pastor of a church. The administrative learning curve has been huge. Bishop Hagiya has shown me patience and understanding and much grace when I made mistakes.

I would ask that Leila Disburg and Crystal Feaster stand to be recognized. You already know that we have an amazing conference staff. It takes time to learn how to work together and we have spent this past year doing just that. Many questions would come our way and we would look at each other and say, "I don't know." We just don't have the corporate conference history yet. Crystal is completing two years as our administrative assistant. Leila is finishing her first year and for the first time in our history as our first full time Director of Connectional Ministries. We stand before you today as three people who love each other, who love our jobs, and who love the United Methodist Church in Alaska. Together we are forging a good team to support and lead you as we grow disciples of Jesus.

A few of the ministries we are hoping to see in the future include improved communications using technology. We are already saving the conference money by conducting online video and audio conferences. We expect every church by this time next year to have a Safe Sanctuary policy adopted and put into practice. We are researching the possibility of starting new communities of faith. We are hoping to follow the example of our southeast region where 3 out of 5 churches have completed a hospitality assessment and have officially become Welcoming Congregations. With Leila's and the bishop's leadership each church is being asked to engage in an assessment process that will help us focus our mission more clearly on discipleship and revitalization.

I know you all will join me in welcoming our newest group of pastors coming to Alaska: Paul Caseman at Seward and Moose Pass; Dan Lush at Willow; Cindy Roberts at Douglas; and Jennifer Smith at Anchor Park and East. The new pastor at Northern Light will be announced very soon.

When I got this job I asked lots of bishops and superintendents for advice and wrote down much of it. Out of that wisdom I gleaned this. My number one job as your superintendent is to bring the best and brightest clergy leaders to our churches. Revitalizing our churches needs to be everyone's top priority. This will only happen when we have spiritually formed, compassionate, and insightful leaders, both clergy and lay.

I want to thank Dennis Holway for preparing the way for me. I also appreciate the wonderful team of pastors appointed here by Rachel Lieder-Simeon and Ed Paup. I'd like our conference lay leader, Mr. Lonnie Brooks, to stand please. I hope you all realize how much time our lay leader, Lonnie Brooks, gives to our conference and the general church. He truly works full time for the church with no pay. I depend on him for valuable insight and Disciplinary expertise. I hope you realize that the author of a good part of our United Methodist Book of Discipline is standing before you. He is an integral part of your conference leadership team.

I met with each of our pastors last year and began to hear a common thread. They would say, "When I came to this church the superintendent or bishop told me such and such." It made me wonder what I would tell my pastors at the time of their Alaska appointment. This is the result of those thoughts. This is what I expect, not only of new clergy, but of all clergy serving in the Alaska United Methodist Conference.

1. BOUNDARIES. Respect all ethical boundaries of human behavior in your church and community. Be very aware to avoid situations where you are alone with a person who is fragile and vulnerable.
2. FAMILY. Married clergy will need to pay special attention to their marriages and their children. The isolation and climate affects people in different ways. Single clergy need to find friends who can provide nurture and accountability.
3. CONNECTIONALISM. Due to the isolation and remote geography of Alaska we really depend on each other. All pastors and lay professionals under appointment are expected to attend the annual clergy retreat and winter rendezvous in February, Fall rendezvous in October, regional program councils, and annual conference.
4. PREACHING/WORSHIP. Work on your preaching and worship leadership. If there is one common quality our churches request at the time of a pastoral change it is that they desire a preacher who can offer a relevant, engaging message based on God's Word they can take home and apply to their daily lives.
5. SPIRITUAL LIFE. Read the Bible and pray daily. Be aware that spiritual insights are not always given to pass on to others, but for your soul's benefit.
6. LOVE. Love your congregation and community. In big and small ways show them that you are one of them, that you embrace this Alaskan life in its grandeur and in its sometimes difficult realities. Remember to include self-love and self-care for your physical and emotional well being.
7. MISSION. Lead your congregation by example in reaching out to be in ministry with the poor and to engage your church in mission beyond themselves.
8. EVANGELISM. Create a church system that is conducive to welcoming new people. Help them deal with the changes that are necessary in order to assimilate new people. Remember, disciple making is the purpose of the Church, and the work of a disciple is the transformation of the world.

9. IMPROVE. Show a genuine willingness to become a better pastor. Take your continuing education seriously. Ask your SPRC for ideas. Consider relating your education experiences to the goals of your church.
10. LAUGHTER. Look for ways to not take yourself so seriously. Letting things roll off your back with a humorous comment will go far to strengthen your emotional well being in Alaska.
11. I tried to limit these to ten but could not resist one more. Pastors, please answer your email and return your phone calls.

When I was a young pastor in Ohio Bishop Edsel Ammons, preached a strong message to our conference. It answered the question, "How do you know what your mission is?" Whether a church or individual the answer was the same. He said, "Let the needs of the world determine your mission." This message has stuck with me. So I challenge us all when we go home to truly look at our communities with God eyes. What are the needs? What can you do as a church and as an individual? For when you and I said yes to Jesus, when we gave our lives to follow this Savior and Lord, we gave up the right to choose whom we will love and whom we will not love. As disciples of Jesus Christ the world is now our parish.

Mike Slaughter, in his new book, Change the World, talks about how the church has operated with an attractional model of evangelism. The time has come, he writes, for the church to move to a missional model of evangelism. The time has come for the Church of Jesus Christ to quit worrying about just filling our pews and start moving into the world.

So let us move into this new conference year with a fresh commitment to God to do whatever it takes to create new places for new people so that the people of Alaska and the world may be transformed by the amazing grace and love of God through our Lord Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit fire!

Visioning Task Force – Julie Elmore and Teri Erbele

By loaning money to the First Samoan Church at 4% interest, we have reduced our annual income from the corpus by about $8000 per year.

Video: "The vision of our church should be as unique as fingerprints."

"What should the cup of water be for our community?"

"What good are we?" "What's the next step?" "The answer begins with one word: VISION."

After a long process of discernment, five priorities were established by the Visioning Task Force:

- Church Revitalization
- Stewardship
- Youth and Young Adults
- New Church Starts
- Native Ministries

Vision Theme: "20/20 VISION: Leading to God's New Horizons." Not only does this emphasize the importance of us developing a clearer vision for our local churches and for our conference, but also sets a time frame for us ... 2020. Ten years.

Questions for members of the AUMC to wrestle with in our local churches:

- Question of Purpose: Why are we (you) here?
- Question of Mission: Where are we (you) going?
- Question of Community: Who will walk with us (you)? Who are the people being forgotten in your midst right now?

- Question of Commitment: What will we (you) die for? What are the things that are worth sacrificing for? What are the things that are worth fighting for? What are the things that are worth sacrificing?

The new Conference Logo was introduced and will appear on the cover of the conference journal as well as all conference publications.

Carlo Rapunut developed a 2020 vision in the Philippines several years ago. 20 new faith communities by 2020; developing the leadership necessary to resource those communities.

Develop a study that could be used in local churches to address the five areas of the vision.

The Visioning Task Force of the AUMC moves that all income from the corpus of the Legacy Fund be administered by the Conference Coordinating Council (CCC) in fulfillment of the priorities of the 20/20 VISION: Leading to God's New Horizons.

AUMC Process for Establishing a Mission Congregation – David Beckett & Peter Perry
This is a process for defining congregations that will exist as “a mission within the mission”. Missionary Conferences can only be created or dissolved by the General Conference, as opposed to Annual Conferences, which are created or dissolved by the Jurisdiction.

Motion is to accept the Process for Establishing a Mission Congregation as a policy for future action. Motion approved as presented.

Petitions

Petition #1 – Lonnie Brooks – Mission Property Management Fund – “It is resolved that the share of the proceeds from the sale of the Kimberly Manor and Hyder real properties to be retained by The Alaska United Methodist Conference be used to establish a fund to be known as the Mission Properties Management Fund. The fund shall be used for paying unforeseen and unbudgeted expenses that arise from time to time, such as, but not limited to, taxes, insurance, appraisals, and surveys. The AUMC Conference Superintendent, upon consultation with and approval from the President of the AUMC Board of Trustees, the Chair of the Conference Coordinating Council, and the President of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, is authorized to use money from the fund for the specified purpose.”

Motion carried.

Petition #2 – Leila Disburg – Safe Sanctuaries – our Biblical mandate to care for those in our midst who are the most vulnerable. Policies and Procedures for the AUMC were presented for consideration and approval by the members of the Conference. Each local church will also be required to have a working policy in place by Charge Conference 2011. It's worse to have a policy that you don't follow than to have no policy at all.

Alaska United Methodist Conference Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedures For Children, Youth and Vulnerable Adults

In so far as the Alaska United Methodist Conference (AUMC) provides ministries to children, youth, and vulnerable adults, it is the policy of this conference to put in place procedures that will protect their safety and well being.

We believe the promise we make at baptism is one that we take seriously. When a child or adult is baptized we agree to do whatever we can to provide a community that will love them and help them to grow to be faithful disciples. Moreover, because we are baptized, we include all children, youth and vulnerable adults whether baptized or not.

Each local church and conference entity in the AUMC which works with children, youth and vulnerable adults shall prepare and send to the conference their policy and procedures for protecting children, youth and vulnerable adults. These policies shall be reviewed yearly and updates included in the charge conference reports for local churches. Each local church will need to adapt its policy to fit its church building, size and programs. Conference staff is available to resource local churches in writing policies and training.

Procedures

Safe Sanctuary

The term "Safe Sanctuary" refers to a program to protect children, youth and vulnerable adults from abuse, authored and published by Joy Melton and used by many United Methodist Churches. It includes simple, common-sense protective rules described below. This is also meant to protect staff and volunteers from unfounded accusations. Procedures for "Safe Sanctuary" should address at least the following topics.

Screening

Any adult who works with children, youth or vulnerable adults either as a volunteer or paid staff person shall be screened. The screening shall include a background check. This background check shall be a national search. It is recommended that someone be designated as the holder of information developed from these screenings. These shall be kept locked up so only the authorized person(s) shall have access.

Background screening shall be redone every other year to assure continued safety of all. The screening can be done through any of a number of resources. The conference office or website can be consulted for recommended services.

Screening shall also include having paid staff and volunteers fill out an application (samples can be found in the resource cited later in this document) to verify identity, address, employment history, experiences, prior church membership, personal references, permission to do the background screening and their signature affirming that the information provided is true.

Some churches introduce the Safe Sanctuary program as a part of new attendee/member classes. This allows the church to make all new persons aware that the church cares about protecting children, youth and vulnerable adults. It also gives the new participants the opportunity to be screened in the beginning if they think they might like to work with vulnerable persons.

Screening for driving records must be done on volunteers or staff who will be transporting children, youth or vulnerable adults. The screener will want to be concerned about the recent years of driving record. If as a young person an applicant had some trouble but is now long past those times, then he or she may be considered to be a safe driver.

See sample forms for gathering permission to do background screening on paid staff and volunteers in the book listed under Resources.

Review of Background Screening

A responsible party shall be designated as the person(s) who reviews background screenings. This person(s) should be someone who can be depended on to keep the information confidential and who can determine what information on a background screening is relevant and what information is not because it is too old or not applicable to the situation.

Computers and the internet make it very easy and quick to do national background screening of all kinds. Permission to do the screening should be kept in locked files. After the screening is done the person in charge of making the background check may shred or black out sensitive information such as social security number, drivers license number, etc. The permission form should be kept on file until a new permission form has been signed for the next screening. The old form can then be destroyed.

Training

The conference shall provide training to all persons working with children, youth or vulnerable adults as requested. The training shall include but not be limited to: recognizing signs of abuse; avoiding situations when abuse might take place or conduct which might be perceived as abuse; reporting requirements of the state of Alaska and the Alaska United Methodist Conference related to abuse and media response procedures.

Group of Three Rule

A child, youth or vulnerable adult shall not be alone with another unrelated adult or child or youth or vulnerable adult. Ideally, everything should be done in groups of at least three: at least two adults and child, youth or vulnerable adult; or two children, youth or vulnerable adults and an adult. The ideal to strive for is two unrelated adults to be with those being protected at all times.

Counseling situations should be handled in such a manner that there is provision for private conversation but, if possible the participating persons should be in visual contact with others. Means of accomplishing this include having an open door, or window into the area of counseling, sitting outside in an area visible to others, or conducting the counseling in an area of a room away from others but still visible. If an adult is going to enter a counseling situation with a vulnerable person he or she should inform another adult.

Restrooms. The ideal situation is to have two adults accompany a child, youth or vulnerable adult to the restroom. If this is not possible another child, youth or vulnerable adult may accompany the supervising individual. The adult may also stand outside the restroom so he or she is not alone behind closed doors with the vulnerable person.

Riding In A Car. When transporting vulnerable participants, adults should make every effort not to be alone in the car with a child, youth or vulnerable adult. When dropping off or picking up vulnerable participants the route should be planned so two are dropped off last or picked up first if another responsible adult is not available. Caravanning is another alternative when two cars are needed to transport but there are not enough adults for two adults per vehicle.

After Events. If an adult finds himself or herself in a situation where he or she is alone after an event with a child, youth or vulnerable adult, he or she should wait outdoors with the protected party until the protected party is picked up.

Showers. Adults and vulnerable participants at an overnight event should not shower together.

Age Differences

The Safe Sanctuary materials recommend a minimum five-year age difference between the oldest participant and the youngest leader at any event. The Alaska UM Conference also recommends this standard when the participants who are not leaders are children and youth. This protects the worker and the children and youth.

Under Eighteen Years of Age

Anyone under the age of 18 shall not be left in sole charge of children, youth or vulnerable adults. When a supervising adult over the age of 18 is present the under 18 worker and those vulnerable are protected.

Windows in All Classrooms

The ideal for classrooms is for each classroom to have a window, which may be in the door to the classroom. When this is not possible doors to classrooms shall be left open and someone shall be designated to walk by randomly to check on each classroom.

Cyber Safety

The world of computers, internet, and social networking is changing at a rapid pace. Churches and conference entities shall keep themselves up to date on what is happening and what is being recommended as best practices for safety of all involved. Children, youth and vulnerable adults shall be educated about internet safety. Permission shall be received in advance if pictures of children, youth or vulnerable adults are going to be used on the internet or in any media. When emailing be sure to "bcc" so that a recipient does not have access to each addressee's email. When computers are available some kind of a parental control management feature shall be used.

Convicted Abusers Attending Church

The internet makes available to the public names and locations of registered sex offenders. If someone in your church is a registered sex offender people in your church will be likely to find out because many parents are advised to check out the website to see if there are registered sex offenders in their neighborhoods.

Churches and conference entities are advised to check their church membership out on these websites and to be proactive if there is someone in your congregation who is a registered sex offender. We want to welcome both those who have been abused as well as those who have been abusers.

However, it is extremely important for the registered sex offender to be monitored while he or she is in your church building or facility where you have programming for children, youth and vulnerable adults. A team from the church (possibly pastor, trustee chair, SPRC chair...) should meet with the registered sex offender and develop a plan that will allow the offender to attend church for worship and other activities but that would restrict the offender from being anywhere in the building where he or she might be alone with children, youth or vulnerable adults.

Churches and conference entities should assign someone to monitor the offender's movements while he or she is in the church building or other facility. This may be in the form of a written agreement with the offender. For more information on how to handle this situation call the Director of Connectional Ministry or the Conference Superintendent.

See The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church 2008, as Resolution 8009.

Educating the Congregation

The Alaska Conference shall regularly offer training to local churches and individuals. It is recommended that local churches develop a plan to educate their congregation, including children, youth and vulnerable adults on Safe Sanctuary. It is also recommended that the church find a way to celebrate when their policy is written, approved and filed with the conference office.

Reporting of Incidents

A plan for responding to allegations of abuse shall be established. The book, Safe Sanctuary has a chapter devoted to this. Those working with children, youth and vulnerable adults shall be aware of the state laws for reporting abuse. They shall also put together a plan to respond to the spiritual needs of those involved. Faithful response to the victim will include taking the allegation seriously and respecting the victim's privacy.

It is recommended that conference authorities (superintendent or the presiding bishop) be notified as soon as allegations of abuse are received.

The conference has a plan in the journal for responding to clergy abuse which should be followed if the pastor is the accused abuser (AUMC 2009 Journal, p113, Paragraph C. Guidelines for Dealing with the Abuse of Power and Authority of the Clergy Office in Areas Relating to Clergy Sexual Misconduct).

Media Communications

A plan for responding to the media shall be put in place. This plan should include who will be designated to speak to the media. The conference staff that has had crisis communication training can be consulted for advice on a plan as well as at the time of a crisis.

Report from GBGM – Teri Erbele

Teri Erbele, Conference Secretary of Global Ministries, reported on the 10-10-10 program launching on October 10, 2010.

Conference Board of Pensions Report – Bruce Galvin, Conference Benefits OfficerPast Service Pension Rate

Resolved: that effective January 1, 2011, the Ministerial Pension Rate and the Local Pastors Pension Rate shall be $642.00 and that Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program be so amended.

Explanation: Supplement One to CRSP is the new name of Addendum A to MPP and CPP that was originally adopted by the 1981 session of this Annual Conference and all other provisions of Supplement One/Addendum A continue as previously adopted. This new pension rate represents an increase of 7% over the 2010 rate to bring it up to 1% of the conference average salary as recommended by the Discipline. Plan rules only require a 2% increase or 0% from a recent Judicial Council decision. There is sufficient funding in the Pre-82 plan to fund this increase.

Motion carried.

Use of Pre-82 Plan Overfunding

Resolved: keep the Pre-82 pension funding ratio at 120% or greater. Excess funding beyond this ratio be sold per contract to another willing annual conference to help fund all or part of their Clergy Retirement Security Plan defined benefit annual contribution due at the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits on December 31st.

Establish a CRSP trust fund held at the General Board that will receive payments from the sale from other willing annual conferences.

Earnings from trust fund are only to be used for pension and benefit purposes of the Alaska Conference.

Explanation: Prior to 1982 clergy were covered under the Ministerial Reserve Pension Fund. This was a defined benefit program where the retired pastor with service prior to 1982 in an annual conference would receive a past service rate set by the conference each year times the number of years served in that annual conference prior to 1982.

The pre-82 pension account was not properly funded when clergy served their years under appointment prior to 1982. This under funding caused an unfunded liability. General Conference legislation passed in 1980 required that each annual conference fully fund the pre-82 obligation by 2021 (40years).

Due to aggressive funding of this obligation in the early years plus incredible returns on plan assets from the stock market the pre-82 unfunded liability was funded in full many years ago in the Alaska Conference. With continued growth in plan assets the preliminary actuarial valuation for 2011 as of 1/1/2009 shows surplus funding of $1,090,809, which is a funding ratio of 143%. We have received the estimated 2012 valuation as of 1/1/2010, reflects market recovery, shows surplus funding of $1,856,000 or 174% funding ratio.

Not all conferences have fully funded their pre-82 obligation since they have until 2021 to complete. Therefore, the conferences that are overfunded cannot get access to their excess funding because the plan cannot be closed until all conferences have fully funded the plan.

Passage of CRSP (effective 1/1/2007) with one of the core components being a defined benefit program makes it now possible to use the over funding in the pre-82 defined benefit program to pay the cost of the CRSP defined benefit program (like programs). Since Alaska is a missionary conference per plan rules Alaska is not responsible for the defined benefit cost of their appointed active pastors so there is no CRSP DB cost.

If a willing annual conference can be found to sell the excess pre-82 funding of Alaska Conference it would be used to pay all or part of that conference's CRSP DB cost on December 31st. In return the Alaska Conference would receive cash that is deposited into the CRSP trust fund account on December 31st.

If a willing annual conference cannot be found the Alaska Conference will have no ability to get at their excess pre-82 funding until the program is closed and/or sold to an insurance company. This could be many years into the future.

The earnings from the trust fund will be incorporated into the conference board of pensions' budget with overall goal to help defray the cost to salary paying units for the high direct bill costs of benefit for their appointed clergy.

Motion carried.

At this point the Conference took a break for lunch.

Plenary #3 – 1:00 p.m.

Consumer Driven Health Plan

Resolved: that effective January 1, 2011 health plan participants will be covered by the Consumer Driven Health Plan offered through HealthFlex of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

Explanation: We are back in an inflationary cycle when it comes to health care costs. In 2010 the medical/pharmacy insurance cost increased by 12%. The projected 2011 cost is an 8.3% increase over the 2010. This is a 21% increase over 2 years or $2,820 for each salary-paying unit. The cost for CDHP is approximately the same as the cost in 2010.

The medical/pharmacy plans through HealthFlex are self insured so the premiums reflect the actual claims experience along with pooling of large claims costs. The insurance companies are not getting rich from our plans.

How much can our local churches and conference budgets afford now and into the future? This is the overriding factor for the Conference Board of Pensions recommending this major change in medical plan.

No getting around it if a participant is a high user of the health benefits it will cost them more under CDHP. The annual deductible will rise from $500 to $2,000 and the out-of-pocket maximum under the CDHP is $5,000 compared to $3,000 for the current PPO.

The consumer driven part of the program provides each adult participant $1,000 into their health reimbursement account. If the $1,000 is not used against medical/pharmacy/behavioral health costs in a year the balance is carried forward. The flexible spending account can be used for the out-of-pocket costs beyond the $1,000 HRA. Participants will hopefully become better consumers of healthcare in utilizing their HRA.

The pharmacy plan will change from a flat co-payment for name brand drugs to a percentage co-payment. The flat co-payment have not been keeping up with the escalating pharmacy costs. The percentage co-payment is capped. There is no annual drug deductible under the new plan.

The current behavioral health and dental coverages are not impacted by the CDHP.

Motion to change to a Consumer-Driven Health Plan was carried.

The plan will address at least the following questions:
 - i. Can this charge reasonably forecast a time when, to provide for its pastor, direct financial support from the AUMC will not be required? If so, in what period of time can this be accomplished and what steps will be taken in order to bring this about?
 - ii. If this charge cannot forecast a time when Equitable Compensation Fund support will not be required to maintain a full time pastor, are there other viable options for ministry in this place that will allow a self supporting ministry, such as, but not limited to, merger of UM churches (¶ 2545), ecumenical shared ministry (¶ 207-211), or circuit or cooperative parish relationship with other UM churches (¶ 205.2)?
 - iii. If the forecast for this charge is that it will, for the foreseeable future, require AUMC support from the Equitable Compensation Fund to maintain a full time pastor, and no cooperative relationship is possible that will help, and a state of permanent financial dependency on the AUMC is necessary and desirable, then the special circumstances of the charge that create this need and prevent financial independence shall be described in the plan.

Report approved.

V. REPORTS TO THE CONFERENCE

A. Regional Program Councils

Northern Regional Planning Council – Karen Martin Tichenor

The Northern Regional Planning Council had our annual meeting April 9-11, 2010 in Palmer. Though a few of our members were absent due to family or health issues, we had a good gathering and time together. Leila came and gave a presentation on Safe Sanctuaries and Dave was there to lead us in worship and be a Conference presence. It was good to have them both with us.

We did decide that beginning in July this year, Tom Telfer will become the sole chairperson of our NRPC. We also decided to keep our annual meeting the weekend after Easter even though next year that will be quite late. With Steve Eldred retiring, there is one pastoral change in our Council, that being at Willow. Plus Fran Lynch is closing her ministry in Anvik and Grayling. We blessed her ministry and prayed for her in this time of letting go. It is our hope that local persons will take up the ministry that she has led for the past 13 ½ years to make it more their own. In the meantime, Willow is growing their community outreach in a big way so Fran will still have plenty to do.

Nome finds itself with continued challenges regarding their massive building. We pray for a good and quick resolution. Palmer had just voted to receive an offer of downtown space for their ministry and worship. We pray this is a good and life-giving decision for their ministry. All other ministries seem strong and stable. We give God thanks for such grace.

South Central Regional Program Council – Carlo Rapunut

The South Central Regional Program Council met three times during the past conference year. We lift up the following as highlights of our work and ministry:

- Participated in the Conference visioning process.
- Recommended El Porvenir to the Conference as its clean water initiative.
- Took steps towards exercising oversight over Campus Ministry at PMU.
- Supported the Alaska Lay School of Theology.
- Supported the Conference leadership training activity for local church leaders.
- Identified Campus Ministry as the “new place for new people” we will be concentrating on.
- Pledged to financially support the “Prophets” tour of Brad Sherill in Fall 2010.
- Revised 2010 budget; drafted and proposed 2011 budget.

Southeast Regional Program Council – Judy Shook

At our fall meeting we began an honest discussion of how SEPRC could really serve our ministries at this point in time. We reviewed what we have like in SE, shared what ministries we hoped would happen in SE. One of the ways is to learn what resources we each bring.

- Sharing some of our Skill Base: Luther Oconer- websites and Wesley, Ev Erbele - icons, new lay speaker training and safe sanctuary, Gail Alquire - arts and crafts, Debra Gerrish- prevention of child abuse and history, Imelda Ramos- non-violent communication, Paul Spangler - youth, generational stuff, Judy Shook - creative arts, dance, media, story telling. (More to be added later.)
- We committed to meeting in Sitka and Ketchikan to see the churches and ministries there. We have been rotating among Juneau/Douglas churches.

- We recognized the needs for Campus Ministry in SE.
- We made plans for getting out info on the Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Disorder conference held in Juneau Feb. 18th - 20.
- We met with the Eagle River UM Camp board coordinating the dates for youth camp to avoid conflicts for all SE churches, encouraging them to update Safe Sanctuaries policies, along with other ongoing ERUMC agenda items.

At our January meeting in Ketchikan we had 3 excellent trainings:

- Cross-Cultural training with Native elders in Ketchikan
- Safe Sanctuaries training with Leila Disburg
- Lay Speaker training with Leila Disburg.

We continue to explore possibilities for a SE Lay Academy in conjunction with the Anchorage-based academy.

B. Administrative Unit – Board of Trustees- Nora Ortiz Fredrick

The Administrative Unit has spent much time expanding the understanding of their role as the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Bruce Galvin joined the AUMC team as the Conference Benefits Officer and has resourced Admin Unit for training and meetings via conference calls, web meetings and in person. We are grateful for Bruce's wisdom, experience and guidance. Bruce serves the PNW Conference and has been their CBO for many years.

In 2009 fiscal year, the Admin Unit provided Willow UMC with $9,000 from Mission Aid for salary support, and provided $15,627 from Mission Aid as a loan to First Samoan UMC for mortgage payments past-due to United Methodist Development Fund. The Alaska United Methodist Conference is a guarantor on the First Samoan UMC mortgage. The mortgage obligation hampers First Samoan's ability to do their mission and they cannot meet it with any regularity. As the guarantor on the mortgage, it would be beneficial to refinance the obligation.

A process of designating a mission congregation in the AUMC is needed to help the Administrative Unit best plan for the long-term sustainability of the congregations that possess the unique missional characteristics that make them unable to be self-sustaining.

Northstar UMC received $4,500 loan for emergency furnace repairs from the Emergency Maintenance Loan Fund.

Two properties owned by the conference were listed for sale. Both these properties were owned by GBGM and deeded to the AUMC in 2008. The Kimberly Manor lots (also known as the Cox properties) in Anchorage received an offer in March 2010. St. John UMC has asserted a claim to this property because it was donated to St. John early in its history, but subsequently abandoned as defined in the BOD. The second listed property, three lots in Hyder, Alaska, received a cash offer in April 2010. Both properties should close before Annual Conference

C. Conference Board of Pensions – Bruce Galvin, Conference Benefits Officer

Starting September 1, 2009 I became the conference benefits officer of the Alaska Conference. I want to thank the Conference board of pensions for allowing me to take on this additional responsibility. I am also currently the CBO in the Pacific Northwest Conference and have been for the last ten years. Up until two years ago I was the assistant treasurer for PNW starting back in 1976. I work out of my home in North Seattle.

Six years ago I advanced my financial knowledge by becoming a Certified Financial Planner™. I will celebrate my 40th wedding anniversary this summer with my wife Robin. We have one son, Matt, who is an engineer at Boeing.

If you have any questions about pension and benefits please give me a call at 800-755-7710, ext. 319 or 206-870-6819. My email address is bruce.galvin@pnwumc.org.

Sometime during the summer the pastoral support worksheet for the coming year will be provided to each pastor, district superintendent and district office. The second page of the worksheet will include the estimated costs for pastor's benefits for the following year. The first page of the form is to be used to report plan compensation to the charge conference. After adopting the plan compensation a copy of the form is to be provided to the district office and then remitted on to me.

As of April 1, 2010 the Alaska Conference is the plan sponsor for the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan. Previously each salary paying unit (local church/conference office) was the plan sponsor. This means that voluntary contributions by the pastor through a salary reduction will be included on the monthly benefits billing statement each month rather than coming from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

The Alaska Conference is responsible for funding two pensions; Pre-82 Plan and the Ministerial Pension Plan (1982 – 2006) Annuities. As a missionary conference there is no funding requirement for the current Clergy Retirement Security Plan defined benefit portion. There is a defined contribution component of CRSP but it is paid at 3% of plan compensation each month with no future responsibility.

Because of the severe financial downturn in 2007 and 2008 the level of the overfunding for the two pensions plans for the Alaska Conference was impacted. Because the Pre-82 plan was sufficiently overfunded no additional funds need to be provided. This is not the case for the MPP annuities. Information from the actuaries at the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits using MPP assets as of 1/1/2009 (full impact of the market downturn) it is preliminarily determined that the Alaska Conference owes an additional $23,776 by the end of 2011. The conference board of pensions has approved that this additional funding come from the overfunding of the Pre-82 plan so no additional funding needs to be provided by the conference.

Many annual conferences have been put under a tremendous financial strain to provide the additional funding for the three pension plans. In response to this the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has relieved the conferences the responsibility for paying the cost of the comprehensive protection plan for three years starting in 2010 (CPP Holiday). The conference board of pensions has approved the continuation of the billing and collecting of the CPP cost, 3% of plan compensation. The annual CPP cost collected from the salary paying units will amount to approximately $130,000 over the three years. This far exceeds the additional MPP cost of $23,776. This excess will be invested with the General Board through the pension services administrative fund.

In the recommendation section of this report there will be a motion on how to get access to the Pre-82 overfunding.

The conference board of pensions has also adopted new health insurance policies that follow:

Active Participants:

Mandatory blended funding of clergy by salary-paying unit (local churches and extension ministry where annual conference has pension responsibility) for all full-time appointments (includes retired pastors of other conferences serving Alaska if receiving at least the minimum salary of the conference or plan compensation that equals or exceeds 125% of minimum salary).

Each salary-paying unit will be billed the same blended cost for each eligible clergy no matter of age or enrollment status unless clergy are part of a clergy couple. One of the clergy couple would be treated as an additional family member as handled in the below paragraph.

If additional family members participate an additional $150 monthly will be billed the salary paying unit with the clergy participant responsible for this cost through a salary reduction with salary-paying unit.

Clergy appointed less than full-time are not eligible for conference health plans unless part of a clergy couple where one of the clergy is appointed full-time.

Full-time lay employees (defined as 30 or more hours per week) of the conference office, local churches and conference agencies are eligible if salary-paying unit signs sub-adoption agreement with conference. The salary-paying units are charged the actual cost to provide the insurance.

Retired Participants:

As a missionary conference there are no retired members.

Other Policies:

Alaska Conference does not have any authority to alter the home conference relationship with an elder. If a pastor is serving in Alaska and needs a different relationship (such as leave of absence, family leave, sabbatical or incapacity leave) it must be granted by the home conference board of ordained ministry. All changes in status must revert to the home conference so no health provisions are provided.

The Alaska Conference does not participate in the smaller employer exemption to Medicare being secondary coverage for those active pastors that are 65 or over. The pastor and spouse, if 65 or over, will remain on the active plan.

As mentioned in the first paragraph if a retired pastor from another conference is appointed full-time they will be treated the same as an active pastor for health insurance purposes.

At the beginning of the calendar year the blended funding cost is determined by taking number of family participants times the monthly family rate less $150 plus number of single participants times the single monthly rate and divide this number by the total number of participants.

Formula for blended monthly cost:

$$(((#family \times (\text{monthly family rate} - $150)) + (#single \times \text{monthly single rate}))/\text{total # of participants}))$$

The blended monthly cost only applies to clergy not lay.

These policies are effective July 1, 2010.

D. Council on Finance and Administration – Linda Dunham
For report, see page 24-28.E. Professional Ministry Unit – Karen Martin Tichenor

Through this year PMU has come to realize just how many hats it is wearing. It makes for challenges along the way but this group has faithfully risen to the opportunities each time. Our greatest sadness has been Georgina Dapcevich's health and need to step down as Episcopacy committee chairperson. She has done a fine job in that capacity. Thank you Georgina! We pray God's grace and mercy upon her. Peter Perry is the new chair.

We are in dialogue regarding our campus ministries, particularly in Anchorage. The treasurer there has stepped down and we are in the midst of finding a replacement that best suits their needs. Plus we want to strengthen our connection to all the campuses and Sue McClure has agreed to be our liaison to do so.

Our church worker's retreat held in February before winter meetings was a powerful time with Father Michael Oleksa as our main speaker. He led Cross Cultural training with us which was of significant help and long awaited by many. Every pastor/church has been given a copy of his book, Conflicting Landscapes written with Clifton Bates, to continue our learning in cross cultural issues.

We are thankful for our Conference leadership and the growth that is happening as each one learns more and settles into a rhythm in their work. We pray for us all to grow in faith and compassion as we take the Good News of Jesus Christ out into the world.

- Special thanks go to Peter Perry who has stepped in time and again to help us out with administrative business details. It has been a real blessing to have his assistance and wisdom.

F. Ministerial Education Fund – Rose McLean

As chair of the MEF funds, I receive requests for continuing education and approve if appropriate depending on availability of funds. We depleted all available funds in 2009, but have received monies for 2010. Because of the shortage of funds, we are limiting the grants to $500 / person / quadrennium.

G. Lay Leaders Report – Lonnie Brooks

H. Commission on Archives and History – Larry Hayden

The Library Resource Room is available for book checkout and research upon appointment with Commission member Lavern Beck at 333-1140. We have hundreds of books on Methodism and Alaskana. A database of its contents is available upon request from Chair Larry Hayden, 523-8975.

This past year your Commission has been attempting to find someone willing to update the AUMC history from 1986 to present. The foundation is laid for someone to lead a team of volunteers to assemble this reference material. We are still hoping someone will come forth with enthusiasm and passion to complete the project.

Every year we encourage each local church to have a Heritage Sunday service which has a theme developed by the General Commission on Archives and History and resource materials can be found via a search link at www.gcah.org For the May 23, 2010 Special Sunday the theme was New Places for New People and Renewing Existing Congregations.

There has been an increase in the number of historical articles placed in local church newsletters which is very encouraging. Please continue to do so.

We are also continuing to encourage each local church to have a historian who is keeping the weekly bulletins, monthly newsletters, board minutes, notices of special events, stories about local people, etc. for future reference; and also to update their local church history. In most instances this seems to be the office manager, but someone should be organizing the official records.

A notice was also sent to each local church and Conference officer suggesting that each local church have in place a disaster management plan just in case there is a fire or a flood or whatever that the important documents and church belongings be successfully recovered in case of a disaster.

Your Alaska Commission hosted a successful Western Jurisdiction meeting in Homer last Spring and this July we will be joining the Historical Society for a meeting in Seattle.

We stand ready to assist churches in their historical endeavors.

I. Lay Speakers—Leila Disburg

For many years Robbie Robinson has been the Lay Speaker program in the Alaska Conference. He has attended the trainings and offered classes around the state at his own expense. He has done this because he has a passion for helping laity become better. We want to thank Robbie for his years of service in this ministry as he retires from leadership of this ministry for the Alaska Conference.

We have plans for a new model that will hopefully grow our lay speakers program. Leila Disburg, DCM, will serve as the Director of Lay Speaking for the Annual Conference. Each of the regional program areas will have their own Coordinator of Lay Speaking.

The coordinators in the 4 regions will help to arrange Lay Speaking classes when needed and monitor persons in their region who are continuing or becoming certified lay speakers. The coordinators will meet with the director and shepherd the program.

Although it takes 5 of us to replace one Robbie, we are hoping and praying that this model will allow us to spread ownership of the program and allow greater accessibility for laity around the conference who want to be a part of this program.

The coordinators are: North Regional Lay Speaking Program Coordinator: Phyllis Sullivan; Kenai Regional Lay Speaking Program Coordinator: Pastor Marti Slater; South East Regional Lay Speaking Program Coordinator: Pastor Evelyn Erbele; South Central Regional Lay Speaking Program Coordinator: TBA

J. Native Ministries

The Native Ministries Committee developed a road map of activities, resource options and desired organization connections during 2009. This roadmap addresses the following tasks

(Finding Our People): Defining Who and What We Are; Faith Communities Development and Growth; Ecumenical Ministries; Native Family; Communications; Institutional Ministries; and Awareness Advocacy. Leadership Development Tasks include: Lay Leader Training, New Clergy/Church Worker Training, Theological Education, Alaska Native Immersion, Resource Development, and UMC Legislation. Our Shared Vision addresses organizations we need to reach out and cultivate relations with: PNW:-Nooksack, White Swan and Lapwal; Native Disaster Response; Alaska Federation of Natives Spiritual Life Task Force; Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference; Alaska Children's Services; and the Western Jurisdiction Inter-Ethnic Coordinating Committee.

In December, we hosted the eighth annual "Giving Voice" gathering of elders at St. John UMC. We discussed developing healthy sustainable communities with presentations by Robert Wolfe, a retired rural educator on marrying science and native life styles. A representative of Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium discussed personal flotation devices developed for use by native boaters. We met with executives of AUMC and Yukon Presbytery regarding an ecumenical approach to providing lay leadership in Native communities.

Charles Brower participates as AUMC representative to the Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP). The Native American Comprehensive Plan serves as the United Methodist entity that resources, strengthens, and advocates for the local church in Native American communities/contexts for all generations. Charles Brower was appointed to the Western Jurisdiction Inter-Ethnic Coordinating Committee. The Western Jurisdictional Conference adopted the "Western Jurisdictional Vision Statement and Organization – 2020: Our Emerging Vision," with the first five elements focusing on:

1. Multi-cultural, Inclusive Church,
2. Churches Engaged in the Life of the Community,
3. Confident, Effective Leaders,
4. Congregations Forming Disciples, and
5. Diverse Ministry Settings (2009 Journal, pp. 107-111);

Charles Brower and Ester Combs attended NACP's Committee On Native American Ministries (CONAM) training in Nashville, TN. Resources and examples of working CONAM operations were offered. Results were shared with our committee.

Charles Brower attended two (2) week long courses offered by Presbytery of the Yukon leading toward becoming a Commissioned Lay Pastor. The first session was on Sermons and Preaching. The second session addressed Christian Education and Pastoral Care practices. Charles plans on using this training as well as UMC Licensed Local Pastor Training as resources to consider in developing lay leader training programs to be offered to rural community leaders expressing interest in opening local churches for more services and ministries. A meeting with denomination executives and native clergy to discuss a Native Alaskan approach to curriculum development for lay leaders is planned for April or May 2010.

K. New Ministries – Jon Disburg

Since the last Annual Conference session of the Alaska United Methodist Church, the New Ministries Committee has met twice to consider more than a dozen grant requests for assistance in establishing new ministries in our Alaska connection. Over $20,000 of apportionment dollars have been granted to establish ministries like these:

- A puppet ministry for developmentally challenged children
- Establishing an after-school Kids' Club
- Providing funding for a local church to establish an internet café for the entire community

- Provide training for leaders from two congregations establishing Celebrate Recovery Programs
- Provide funding for lay persons to attend the School of Congregational Development where ideas for new ministries toward growth are learned
- Provide funding to assist a church move toward multi-media worship experiences

The New Ministries Committee has also expressed to Conference leadership for an ongoing support of ministry at Anvik and Grayling as Willow will now support its own community worker.

For more information concerning the grants or to receive an application for a grant, please contact the New Ministry Chair, Jon Disburg at jdisburg@gmail.com.

L. Communications – Jim Doeppen

Since the 2009 Annual Conference, your communications committee has been addressing four large projects:

- We have been working on keeping the conference website regularly updated with documents to download and content that would be of interest to our clergy. We are working to make this be something we all want to go back to again and again.
- We have been working with a graphic designer on a brochure to be used by the conference leadership and those itinerating on its behalf.
- While being part of the discussion in defining the mission of the AUMC, we have been working with a designer to produce a logo that will reflect the mission of the conference, give us a sense of direction in fulfilling that mission, and will serve as the public image of the conference on promotional material.
- Promotion of "Church is a Verb Sunday" to be held on August 22nd (or another date chosen by the local congregation). This is a very real way for the Alaska United Methodist Conference to put into practice the RETHINK CHURCH campaign of our denomination.

In addition to these, we have continued with our regular communication via the "E-Aurora" and the "Aurora Witness." We have also been tasked with exploring telecommunication with the Pacific Northwest Conference and helping our churches as they address social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, and Ning groups.

M. Conference Coordinating Council (CCC) – Peter Perry

The Conference Coordinating Council exists to guide the work of the Regional Program Councils and conference working units as together we each do our part in implementing the conference's strategic plan and mission priorities. Ours is the work of reviewing and evaluating programs and assessing directions for the future. We are coming out of some years of significant transition in conference leadership, and the CCC is hopeful that in the relative stability that has been developing we will find renewed energy for our task.

We have met twice in the past year, in October and February, following both the Fall and Winter Rendezvous. After everyone else has gone home, the CCC members have remained behind to weave the various ministries and programs into some sort of tapestry that effectively depicts the total ministry of the conference; hopefully it is a tapestry that is pleasing to God. Much of our time is spent in a "reporting" mode, sharing with each other the work of our individual program areas. Some is spent in an “evaluative” mode, critically examining what we’ve done and how we’ve done it. Hopefully into the future, more energy will be spent in an “imagining” and a “leading” mode, as we move forward with a new conference vision and plan.

This past year we adopted a dual focus for our missional priority with the two foci being clean water and campus ministry. The El Porvenir and Aurora Congregation projects have grown out of this decision and are being widely embraced by local congregations. The dual focus means that we will live with these mission priorities for two years instead of the customary one year. This decision came out of the desire to have more time in our local churches to develop longer term commitments to the chosen projects.

We are very excited to have a Director of Connectional Ministries in place as assisting this person in implementing program ministries is one of our primary tasks. It will be good to have an individual to be a “point person” for the important work we all share.

N. Conference Council On Youth Ministries – Laura Skiba

This past year has been one of transitions and trying things in a new way. After several meetings and discussions, a new way of doing Youth Camp in the Conference was tried out. We changed the date to the third week in July, moved the beginning to Sunday night, and combined Junior and Senior High youth for the week. This worked well with youth leaders bringing their youth and then doing the counseling through the week. The camp was the best attended in recent history and the feedback was excellent! There was opportunity for high school and junior high to split up and time for them to come together. There was also modern worship music designed for a new generation of believers in Christ. With approximately 50 youth in attendance, they had the opportunity to meet and get to know youth from throughout the Conference. Youth from Nome, Anvik & Grayling, Fairbanks, the Kenai Peninsula and Anchorage all came together and had a great experience together. The leadership of Adam Muhr and Clarice Moore was invaluable, and the music leader was well received. Other experiences of the CCYM were resource sharing among youth leaders and designing a website for Conference Youth leaders and youth to be in touch with one another. As is often the case, the transitions of youth leadership within the Conference is high, so the challenge to keep up with current youth leaders always exists. From my experience this past year, I am amazed at the awesome youth that we have here in the Alaska United Methodist Conference!

O. Outdoor Ministries – Von Cawvey

Outdoor ministries are alive and well in Alaska. Eagle River Camp, Hope Retreat Center, and Birchwood Camp are all working together to promote camping as a way to build community and see God in our natural world.

Alan Rogstad, the Executive Director for Camping and Retreat Ministries in the Pacific NW Conference, accepted our invitation to evaluate and comment on our camps and programming. He visited all 3 facilities over a long weekend and shared meals with the Birchwood and Eagle River Board members. He had several ideas during his visit, and after a few days of reflection, sent back several pages of additional suggestions. Our fall meeting was largely spent working through Alan’s notes and developing action plans for each of our facilities. We are in the process of developing a colorful Conference-wide camping brochure that will have a multi-year shelf-life and feature the programming and activities available at each camp and retreat center. Along with the churches here, we hope to share this brochure with PNW, giving their youth an opportunity to experience camping in Alaska.

We again wish to thank the Conference for the financial support provided to our camps this past year. The higher fuel bills at the Hope Retreat Center have been eased and Eagle River and Birchwood are expanding their facilities and programs to better serve the Conference and local communities. Your prayers are always appreciated as we work toward the goal of providing Outdoor Ministry opportunities to Alaska.

P. United Methodist Women – Julia Smith

As we worked to fulfill the PURPOSE of UMW this year we have celebrated, educated, raised money for missions, worshiped, honored Kim Pitts from Anchor Park UMC UMW for her work in Nicaragua for social/racial justice, and elected women to carry on the work.

At the Spiritual Growth Retreat, “God’s Hidden Treasure” held at the Seward Windsong Lodge about 50 women met for the August event. Our retreat leader, former Women’s Division Director Kumja Lim, was joined by Julie Elmore, our resident pastor at the retreat. The three day retreat included prayer groups, Bible study, worship, and a Love Feast.

At the Annual Meeting of UMW of the nineteen UMW Units, 17 were represented at the meeting, with a total of about 60 women. Response Magazine in it’s February issue, an article, “United Methodist Women Members Examine Issues of Race and Class” featured the Annual Meeting of AUMC UMW. The focus of the Annual meeting was “Truth and Wholeness, Replacing White Privilege With God’s Promise.”

The Pacific Regional School of Christian Missions was attended by conference officers, and three study leaders, Judy Shook, Elliott Graves, and Annie Kendall. The three studies, “Food and Faith”, “The Beauty of Courage of Sudan”, and “Native American Survival” have been taught at Regional Mission Education Events, and in local churches by conference officers.

UMW continues to follow the example of Christ to care for the needs of others through the ministries of the church.

Q. United Methodist Men – Jim LaBau and Charles Brower

For the complete UMM report, see p. 46

R. Volunteers in Mission – Lori Staats

It has been an eventful year for UMVIM nationally and internationally. Earthquakes around the world have had a devastating impact on many nations and on the leadership of our organization. The Chile earthquake took the lives of two leaders in UMCOR/UMVIM. Sam Dixon leader of UMCOR, and Clinton Rabb who lead mission volunteers both perished in the quake. They will be greatly missed in our organization. UMCOR continues to look at ways to serve the needs of those communities touched by natural disaster. Teams are being scheduled for Haiti, if your church is interested in sending a team, please contact me for details.

Our conference is a popular destination for UMVIM teams, and I have already received inquiries for teams wishing to travel here in 2011 and 2012. If you have needs for a team, please contact me at staatslori@gmail.com and I will provide the paperwork needed to start the process.

I look forward to hearing from you as you send or receive teams.

S. Alaska Children’s Services – Kelli Williams

Greetings of double celebration! This year marks 120 years of ministry together, as we celebrate the 120th anniversary of the Jesse Lee Home! This year also marks 40 years of ecumenical ministry! In 1970, three Church Projects formed a new federation. The Lutheran Youth Center, the Anchorage Children's Christian Home and the Jesse Lee Home joined hands to become Alaska Children's Services. I look forward to Annual Meeting this year as we are all reminded of our shared history and ministry.

At Annual Meeting, please visit the ACS display to refresh your knowledge of the ways we are all working together to share the Spirit of Christ's love! Also at the ACS display table, please consider signing up for the ACS Spiritual Life Liaison program, the e-mail prayer chain, or to be a support to our foster care program if you have not already.

Thank you for all the ways you share your prayers, presence, gifts and service with ACS! We are ever-so grateful for the Alaska United Methodist Conference's continued support of the ACS mission! Thanks to Rev. Dave Beckett, Dave Stratton and Kerry Madden for their faithful service as members of our board of directors. Thanks to all who pray for our students as members of our weekly e-mail prayer chain. Thanks to all of you who answer the call to help in a multitude of ways...shopping for Easter basket supplies, providing batteries for Christmas toys, adding candlelight to our Sue Cole Memorial Chapel to name only a few.

In both fiscal year 2009 and 2010 our UMC offerings were budgeted at $50,000.00. Actual giving for FY 2009 was $37,795.00 (a deficit of approximately $12,000.00). And as of 2/28/10, actual giving is at $16,842.00 with a pro-rated budget of $25,263.00 (approximately a 50% deficit). The Spiritual Life program relies on church support to be able to continue our work in ministry for children and families suffering from abuse, neglect, discord and emotional instability in their lives. Thanks to congregations, and individuals who financially support our Spiritual Life ministry. Your contributions make you a part of the great cloud of witnesses at ACS.

We're so grateful for ACS's deep and enduring connection to the Alaska United Methodist Conference. We look forward to another fruitful 120 years of ministry together, providing hope in troubled young lives.

T. Birchwood Camp

It has been an exciting year at Birchwood Camp. In May 2009 the Camp broke ground on a large multi-purpose cabin that will provide expanded program space during the busy summer months and will allow the Camp to host multiple rental groups at one time during the off season. Several VIM teams came up during the summer to help with this project. By September, the log building and full basement had a roof and was ready for winter. The building should be heated, finished and ready for use by this fall.

Birchwood held four residential summer camps during 2009 for children and youth grades 2 - high school graduation. More than 150 campers experienced community and Christian faith formation while at Birchwood Camp this year. An equal number of volunteers served at Birchwood during the summer, either as counselors or on the building project. We are proud to report that during our Jr. / Sr. High Camp we literally had campers from all over AK—Nome, Anvik/Grayling, Fairbanks, Nikiski, MatSu Valley and, of course, Anchorage. The Camp was lucky to have Judy Kline and Adam Muhr serve as interim Directors during the summer and early fall. In October 2009, Birchwood Camp welcomed Stephen and Marie Sweezey as the new Camp Director couple. The Sweezseys are passionate about camping ministry and are working hard to expand the programs offered at Birchwood Camp. Birchwood Camp continues to be a special place for campers to grow in faith and understanding of God.

U. Eagle River Camp – Robert Chatfield

Eagle River United Methodist Camp had a very busy year in 2009. About 1594 people used the camp at least one night during 2009, and the facilities were used 11 times during the day only by 683 people. This meant an increase by 30% over the previous four years annual usage. The camps that occurred included two Methodist sponsored camps, in addition to more than twelve camps sponsored by other churches, the school district, dance groups, and social action groups.

One special camp is Camp Champ which has children of incarcerated parents come out to camp for several days and nights to participate in normal camping activities out in nature. Some of the kids are terrified having never been 'out the road' from town and the change that occurs from day one to when they leave is inspirational. They come silent and fearful, then leave loud and invigorated.

The volunteer work and camp improvements included collaboration with ACTS, WORD, Saga, and Campus Crusade. Campus Crusade volunteered twice this summer, first in June, then again in July, sending altogether 42 young volunteers who donated a total of 152 volunteer hours.

Two VIM teams helped finish the two cabins built in 2008 by getting them wired, insulated, finished inside, with windows and doors trimmed, and columns and beams sanded and finished. Through the summer, 20 new bunks (40 beds) were precut then brought to the camp and assembled, all with volunteer effort. Since we are the last electric outlet on the Juneau electric system, we purchased an emergency generator using several generous donations and built a shed from leftover lumber.

A major fuel oil spill this last fall was cleaned up to the satisfaction of the Department of Environmental Conservation.

This fall, the Department of Highways has been expanding the road in front of the camp and will make our current covered outdoor activity pavilion undesirable, hastening our plans to get a new one built in this summer.

V. Hope Retreat Center – John Meyn

This has been a good year for the Hope Retreat Center with more than 260 people using the facility. Insulation upgrades were made on the septic field and no freeze-ups occurred this year, also some repairs were done on the front steps. We are planning to refinish the conference room (sanctuary) floor and to furnish it with couches. If we have a UMVIM group we plan to replace the floor in the living room and kitchen areas. Cottonwood trees on the property are coming down this summer also. Reservations are still made through the conference office thanks to Crystal, who's in charge of the keys and money.

W. Willow-Anvik-Grayling Church & Community Ministry – Fran Lynch, Deaconess and Church and Community Worker

We are in the mist of transitions as a reflection of growth. Over the past 14 years the ministry has grown and expanded to the point were nothing more could happen unless the two emphases split. In Anvik and Grayling the emphasis on Christian Education for children needed to expand for opportunities for faith development for adults. Local leadership needs to be identified and encouraged with training provided; we also need to pursue opportunities for a joint ministry with the Episcopal Church of Alaska since they have the history in the villages. In Willow the emergency needs of the community continue to grow – almost 100 families each month receive assistance from the Food Bank, more opportunities to participate in government programs to provide food, and the need to cultivate the growing desire of other agencies / churches in Willow to partner with the outreach based in the Willow UMC. One person can not do it all and the diverse emphases of the ministry had become a hindrance to growth.

I will no longer travel to the villages, but will work with the Native Ministries Committee and Conference Leadership to reform this work in a different manner. I will work full time in Willow to expand the program and form official partnerships with other Willow agencies. Stay posted for exciting new developments.

X. University Community Ministry, Anchorage – Doug Lindsay

The Campus Community Ministry report actually begins in June, 2009, when Alaska Pacific University (formerly Alaska Methodist University) held a weekend homecoming and celebrated its fiftieth anniversary. It was an activity-filled, nostalgic, and forward-looking weekend, culminating in two events: the Time Capsule Ceremony (opening the 1959 capsule, and “burying” a new 2009 capsule), and a Fiftieth Anniversary Worship Service at First United Methodist Church. The worship service was attended by United Methodist pastors and laypeople from all over Anchorage, as well as a number of AMU/APU trustees and alumni. Dale Sellin, local Anchorage businessperson and the first student to register at Alaska Methodist University, delivered the sermon. Refreshments were served following the service.

The new incoming class at APU began arriving for an extended orientation the week of August 17, one week prior to the beginning of classes. I was able to participate in a number of the orientation meetings and the Orientation Dinner for new students and their families. Weekly chapel services began again the Sunday evening, September 13, at 6:30pm, and continued throughout the Fall Block and Fall Session classes. We had improved attendance by moving the weekly chapel service to Sunday evenings, although it tapered off in mid-autumn, and then increased again by the last week of classes.

Finals Week was highlighted by two evenings of free coffee, tea, and homemade cookies, available at the chapel. Students, faculty, and staff enthusiastically depleted the supply of cookies and beverages. Plus, it provided time for them to sit and talk with someone who was sympathetic to their “plight!” The APU Spiritual Life committee is hopeful that we’ll continue to offer this service during future Final Weeks. Most recently, a Service of Prayer and Hope for The People of Haiti was held on Monday, January 25. Flyers were distributed with phone numbers and websites to contact to donate resources.

Last year, we had a student-led class in mindfulness and meditation that met during the winter and spring months. Beginning in March, we offered Thursday night “Meaningful Movie Nights” with a feature film presentation and refreshments. We hope to be able to continue these periodic movie nights next Fall, 2010.

Saturday, December 12, 2009 was the final Commencement over which APU President Doug North presided. The University almost simultaneously announced that Dr. Don Bantz had been selected as the ninth president of Alaska Pacific University. Dr. Bantz will begin his duties on March 15, 2010. Dr. Bantz was the previous president of Evergreen State College in Olympia, Washington. And from 1974 through 1986, Dr. Bantz worked for the Alaska Federation of Natives and then as Executive Director of the Anchorage Neighborhood Health Center. Dr. Bantz began his tenure at APU on March 15, 2010. There is a great deal of “buzz” being generated by students and faculty as we begin the era of Dr. Bantz’s leadership.

Over these last few months, I personally feel that my most significant accomplishment is one that is just beginning: the establishment of The United Methodist Advance Project Number 3021099 – “Rural Alaska Native Adult Distance Learning Scholarship, Alaska Pacific University.” – <http://new.gbgm-umc.org/advance/> The RANA distance education program is in its fifteenth year of existence at APU, and the success stories are phenomenal. I have prepared a letter to be sent to all United Methodist leaders (clergy and lay Conference members) in The Alaska United Methodist Conference during May, 2010. All Conference clergy and lay members will receive this invitation to donate individually and as a congregation to this worthy cause before Annual Conference. In fact, it would be wonderful if The Alaska United Methodist Conference would consider making this scholarship fund a mission priority in 2010-2011.

Currently, I am on both the Alaska Pacific University and University of Alaska Anchorage campuses at least two days a week. I hope that the Professional Ministries Unit, the University Community Ministry Support sub-committee, and the Conference work to determine the future of campus ministry here in Anchorage, that we will continue to maintain and deepen our relationship with Alaska Pacific University, for the next fifty years, and beyond

Y. United Campus Ministry – David Moore

The staple of United Campus Ministry is Tuesday evening Vespers. Every Tuesday about 15 to 20 students gather to worship, fellowship, and pray with each other. Each week we have a talk about growing spiritually and coping with college life. Music is a big part of this service and it has been wonderful to have so many folks helping to lead us as we worship.

We have had excellent Thursday Evening Dinner and Bible Study. With about 10 to 15 students each week we enjoyed looking at the "Parables that Jesus Taught" and the "Miracles of Jesus." It is always nice to have a fantastic home cooked meal and to be able to get away from campus.

On our Fall Retreat we ventured out to Camp Bingle. Former UCMer Kathleen Klynstra shared about "Worship as a Lifestyle." We had a beautiful hike, a bon fire with s'mores and Kathleen did an excellent job conveying her message of living out our faith with the students. On our Spring Retreat we spent the night at First United Methodist Church and had a great day working at the Food Bank. We focused on Compassion and students really enjoyed the challenge of eating on only $2 for dinner.

We had a fantastic Spring Break Trip with nine students and three former students joining in on the fun. We stayed at St John UMC in Anchorage, worked at Clare House, helped to lead worship at St John and skied at Alyeska. We had a great time and are indebted to St. John for hosting us. We also appreciate former UCMers Jessica Faulkner, Emma and Jeff Mayfield for helping to make the trip a huge success.

I have a great pair of Office Assistants, Bethany McMilin and Margaret Raughley. They are both sophomores and I look forward to working with them as our group grows next fall.

Z. Nome Community Center – Lance Johnson

The Nome Community Center continues its dedicated leadership in many social service and public advocacy areas in Nome, Alaska, including Tobacco Prevention, Family Reunification Services, Seniors and Elders Care, the Nome Food Bank, Preventing Underage Alcohol Consumption, and several other human services. We are proud of this work in the Bering Strait Region, and we are humbled by our newest endeavor: operating a receiving home for displaced youth.

The Nome Children's Home opened May 12, 2009, and provides residence for up to seven children with no other home-bound options. While we are only a temporary facility for children until a permanent placement is found, the time we have the children, ages 0-18 years, is one where more than a roof and bed is provided. Children receive basic care needs – medical, dental, behavioral health – that may have been neglected in the past, and socialization and education are paramount. Many children who come to the Home come bruised and traumatized, both physically and spiritually. Our Mission is to ensure they leave our care prepared to trust primary care givers once again and to understand they are not at fault for their situations. They are loved, and they are innocent.

We are proud to have a dedicated staff of caring individuals who provide this important twenty-four hour care, and we look forward to offering this important community asset as a permanent part of our agency and as a positive reflection on the Alaska United Methodist Conference, General Board of Global Ministries, and the Women's Division of The United Methodist Church.

AA. Reports of General Boards and Agencies

1. General Board of Higher Education – Lonnie Brooks

I am pleased to serve as a member of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. The Board is in a difficult time right now, with a perfect storm of separate factors converging to cause trouble. The recession has hit the whole Church hard, from local churches to annual conferences to general agencies. We've been somewhat insulated from that effect in Alaska, but that's not true in the General Church. Apportionment payments are down, and that's having a dramatic effect on the ability of the Board to carry through on its commitment to many of its programs. Scholarship distributions are down as are payments through the Ministerial Education Fund that directly supports United Methodist seminaries. Coupled with that is the fact that the Board has seen the departure of no fewer than five senior level executives since July 2008, a period of less than two years.

A search has been announced to fill the three top positions on the board. Two positions open right now are Associate General Secretaries of the two divisions under which the Board operates—the Division of Higher Education and the Division of Ordained Ministry. In addition, the current General Secretary is serving a term that will expire in April 2012, and he is not eligible to repeat in that job. The Board has just begun a search for a new General Secretary.

Please keep this important ministry of the Church in your prayers, and if you know someone who ought to be considered for service in one of these three positions, please let me know.

2. Women's Division – Jo Anne Hayden, Women's Division Director

This past year has been quite a year of transition for United Methodist Women. A ten year strategic plan was worked on and finalized by the directors while at the same time we found ourselves in a period of restructure within UMW as well as in our relationship with the General Board of Global Ministries with an overall goal of allowing our work with women, children, and youth to flourish. Out of all of this, UMW now has direct oversight and responsibility for UMW supported National Mission Institutions while also increasing relationships with international partners and regional missionaries. With responsibility for the administration and funding for the Office of Deaconess and Home Missioners, we are committed to grow these ministries and at the same time extend opportunities for lay ministry.

Assembly 2010 (to be held in St. Louis, Missouri, April 30 – May 2) will provide opportunity for United Methodist Women to strengthen conversations with Regional Missionaries, National Mission Institution leaders, many Deaconesses, Home Missionaries;, and Home Missioners.

During current challenging economic times, our operating expenses have been contained and administrative expenses decreased in order to maintain levels of mission program expenditures. With a new vision statement of “turning faith, hope, and love into action” on behalf of women, children, and youth around the world, our key areas of focus to do so are: spiritual formation, transformative education, leadership development, and building a stronger connection between service and advocacy for our members.

While I’ve represented our conference and the Western Jurisdiction as a Women’s Division Director at two meetings each year, I’ve also represented the Women’s Division as I’ve trained officers at Regional School, participated in the planning of a Conference Spiritual Growth Retreat, and attended our Conference UMW Annual Gathering, Mission Educational Event, and Conference officer team meetings.

3. Ministry Study Commission – Rose McLean

I am serving on the Ministry Study Commission for a second quadrennium along with Bishop Hagiya. We have made significant progress this year, especially compared with last quadrennium. The small group that I work with is addressing streamlining the ordination process. At this point, we have eliminated at least three years from the process, are recommending group mentoring as a possibility, and asking each conference to develop a strategy to promote a culture of call including adding a position to the Board of Ordained Ministry specifically for this purpose.

4. Curriculum Resources Committee – Rose McLean

I continue to serve on the CRC and am chair of the Children’s Section. Twice each year, we meet, either in person or by conference call to approve curriculum and other resources for each age level.

BB. Jurisdictional Boards and Committees

1. Western Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee – David Beckett and Lonnie Brooks

It was with regret and sadness that we accepted the resignation of Georgina Dapcevich. She served our conference and jurisdiction well and faithfully represented the voice of Alaskan UM laity. Lonnie Brooks agreed to step in and fill this position and was present at our annual January meeting. We have been working to implement an evaluation process for our bishops in the West. Our own Bishop Hagiya has volunteered to participate in our initial evaluation initiatives. In January we meet with each bishop for up to an hour listening to their concerns, sharing what we are hearing about their ministries, and expressing interest for their families and health. We send cards to retired and active bishops for various occasions. Our committee also is talking with our bishops and leadership about how we will implement changes mandated by the 2008 General Conference to eliminate one bishop per jurisdiction. Members of the committee on occasion participate in official complaints brought against bishops. Dave Beckett has served on a response team for one such complaint in our jurisdiction this past year.

2. Western Jurisdictional Leadership Team 2010 - Jim Deopken and Leila Disburg

Jim Doeppen and Leila Disburg, DCM, were your representatives on the Western Jurisdictional Leadership Team. The meeting time began with an educational event, January 22-24, 2010, in Phoenix, Arizona about starting new churches. Information came from the Desert SW Conference and their experience, Path 1, and what is happening with Racial/Ethnic new church starts.

This was followed by two days of business meetings. The business included: worship time, a report from the Task Force on WJ Communications, General Conference 2016, WJ "Permeable Boundaries", Conferences Committee, and many other reports and times for sharing and discussion.

Leila Disburg: "I found the training and the meeting time a wonderful opportunity to meet people from all around the Western Jurisdiction. I made many connections and new friends who have helped to resource the ministry here in Alaska."

Jim Doeppen: "As we get closer to this year's Annual Conference, as we meet in groups discussing our vision and our desire to plant new churches and strengthen existing churches, the terminology and teachings from these meetings in Phoenix are proving very important. While we like to say that we do things differently in Alaska, we have a lot we can learn from our brothers and sisters in the Western Jurisdiction."

CC. Reports from Colleges, Universities, and Seminaries

1. Africa University - Jim Salley, Associate Vice-Chancellor for Institutional Advancement, Africa University

Africa University has many stories to tell – to the nations of Africa, and the world.

During Zimbabwe's economic and political struggles of recent years, United Methodist-related Africa University continued to educate leaders for all of Africa. For a time in 2009, it was the only institution of higher education in Zimbabwe open for classes. We celebrated our 3,000th graduate with the 2009 graduating class.

In the 2009-2010 academic year, our 1,100 students represented 28 African countries. We have a substantial waiting list of students eager to attend on campus or through our emerging distance-learning curriculum.

For all of this, we thank God for the prayers and support of United Methodists. In 2009, annual conferences contributed more than $2 million to the apportioned Africa University Fund. That represents 86 percent of the $2.5 million goal set by the 2008 General Conference.

United Methodists' support for Africa University creates opportunities for Africans to help Africans. Our graduates are living out the United Methodist vision for the Four Areas of Focus:

Leadership: The Rev. Tolbert Thomas Jallah Jr. is a prime example. A graduate of AU's Institute of Peace, Leadership and Governance, the former advisor to Liberian President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf is now Secretary General of the Fellowship of Christian Councils of Churches in West Africa.

Global Health: Bigi Ruhigita, a nurse from the Democratic Republic of Congo, earned her master's degree in public health at AU. She returned to Congo to work in a 50-bed clinic she and her siblings founded in honor of their father.

Ministry with the Poor: Isaiah Njimbu, a 2006 graduate, returned to Lubumbashi, DRC, to find many children orphaned because their parents died of AIDS. In response, Njimbu started the Child Action Initiative, a nongovernment organization. Today, this ministry still thrives.

Church Growth: The Rev. Daniel Mhone was instrumental in establishing 28 local churches in the newly established Malawi (Africa) Missionary Conference. He credits Africa University for increasing his capacity as a pastor.

In December 2009, we joyfully celebrated the inauguration of Bishop David Kekumba Yemba and Professor Fanuel Tagwira as the university's third chancellor and vice chancellor.

Democratic Republic of Congo President Joseph Kabila praised the university's dedication to Africa at our annual seminar commemorating former United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Every annual conference is vital to the success of the dream that has become Africa University. Your support educates leaders in theology, agriculture, social sciences, health sciences, and peace and justice.

2. Candler School of Theology – Jan Love, Dean and Professor of Christianity and World Politics, Candler School of Theology

Guided by our mission to educate faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world, Candler School of Theology continues to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ by developing leaders called by God to serve in Christian ministry. Our distinctive commitment to both inspiring minds and empowering ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concern. As one of nine graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the major metropolitan area of Atlanta, Georgia, Candler offers students a learning laboratory that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

To ensure that our students are prepared for leadership in an increasingly global context, Candler has placed a new emphasis on internationalizing the curriculum. In 2009, we established the Office of International Initiatives, led by Dr. David Jenkins, and received several grants related to international engagement. Through one of these, Candler partnered with International Relief and Development, Inc. to send seven student interns to Mozambique, Indonesia, and the Republic of Georgia in the summer of 2009. Other grants are assisting Candler in initiating a national conversation on best practices for internationalizing theological education. In spring semester of 2010, Dr. Wesley de Souza, Arthur J. Moore associate professor in the practice of evangelism, team-taught a distance education class in real time with a professor and students at a seminary in Sao Paolo, Brazil, the first collaboration of its kind at Candler. The March 2010 visit of Roman Catholic Cardinal Walter Kasper, president of the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity, ushered in a yearlong special emphasis on internationalization at Candler.

A hallmark of the Candler M.Div. experience, the Contextual Education program continues to shape our students' pastoral identities by interweaving service at ministry sites and churches with academic reflection in the classroom. In any given week, Candler deploys more than 250 Con.Ed students throughout the region to minister to people in congregations, hospitals, and social service agencies. Last year, Candler's Con.Ed students provided 1/3 of the service hours responsible for Emory University winning the U.S. government's Presidential Award for General Community Service, the highest federal award a college or university can receive for its commitment to community engagement.

Candler's Teaching Parish Program, directed by Dr. Alice Rogers, continues to expand into more conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction, providing United Methodist students with the opportunity to serve churches throughout their seminary education, earn academic credit for pastoral experience, and complete their M.Div. degree in three years. Through the Course of Study regional school at Candler and our five extension schools in the Southeast, we oversaw the educational process of 918 people this past year.

Candler has faced the recent economic challenges with bold initiatives to advance our mission. Although our operating budget essentially will remain flat next year, we are increasing our investment in financial aid each year. Candler's total financial aid commitment in 2009-10 was $4.7 million. Eighty-six percent of eligible students received Candler-based financial aid, with the average award covering 76 percent of tuition. More than $2.6 million was provided to 191 United Methodist students. We also established Candler Advantage, a program designed to pay rising third-year M.Div. students for summer internships in congregations so they can concentrate fully on honing their pastoral skills. In March, we hosted our second annual Leadership Candler event, an all-expenses-paid discernment experience that draws together top prospective M.Div. students to explore the richness of life and study at Candler. Last year, 75 percent of the participants in Leadership Candler joined us as students in the fall. Finally, Candler has raised more than half of our $60 million capital campaign goal.

During 2009-10, Candler celebrates the 25th anniversary of the Sherman Scholarship Fund. Established by Frank and Helen Sherman of Jacksonville, Florida, the Sherman program has provided financial assistance to 868 students preparing for pastoral ministry in United Methodist churches.

Candler's student body continues to attract younger and more diverse people. Our enrollment stands at 499, with 391 seeking the Master of Divinity, 62 the Master of Theological Studies, 25 the Master of Theology, 14 the Doctor of Theology, and 7 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. The total student population is 23% US ethnic minority, 11% international, and 50% women. More than 50 denominations are represented, with 52% of MDiv students being United Methodist. The median age of our entering class of MDiv students is 26, with 57% of total enrollment under thirty.

Our faculty members continually demonstrate their dedication to the church through preaching and teaching engagements, scholarship, and service in local parishes as leaders in their congregations. This year we welcome two new faculty: Dr. Greg Ellison, assistant professor of pastoral care and counseling, who joined us in fall 2009, and a fellow United Methodist, the Rev. Dr. Arun Jones, who joins us in fall 2010 as the Hankey Chair in World Evangelism. Candler also has produced A Thrill of Hope, a church resource DVD for Advent that offers a fresh take on the Christmas story, uniting art, scripture, and commentary by members of Candler's faculty. Watch a preview on our website, www.candler.emory.edu.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its vital relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you undergird this essential ministry in the life of our denomination.

XII. RULES OF ORDER

DIVISION 1 . . . ORGANIZATION OF THE ALASKA UNITED METHODIST CONFERENCE

R1.00...NAME: Created by The United Methodist Church as a missionary conference, the name of the conference shall be The Alaska United Methodist Conference (AUMC). It may be known informally as The Alaska Conference, and its Board of Trustees may be incorporated under the name The Alaska United Methodist Conference, Inc.

R1.00 . . . CONVENING: The Alaska United Methodist Conference (AUMC) shall convene its annual conference on the date set by the Presiding Bishop of the area as provided in the United Methodist Discipline (Disc., 2008, ¶603.2).

R1.05 . . . PLANNING COMMITTEE: The annual conference Planning Committee (ACPC) shall plan the annual conference. (See R5.1002 for the composition and duties of this committee.)

DIVISION 2 . . . MEMBERSHIP

R2.00 . . . CATEGORIES: The categories of clergy membership in the AUMC shall be:

AFFILIATE: Ordained United Methodist clergy appointed by the Presiding Bishop of the area to serve United Methodist Churches and/or ecumenical agencies and ecumenical shared ministries within the boundaries of the AUMC shall have affiliate status and full voting rights as provided in the 2008 Book of Discipline, ¶586.5. This category does not include those serving in the category of Indigenous.

COLLEGIAL: Ordained clergy of other denominations who meet disciplinary requirements (Disc., 2008, ¶346.2) and who are appointed by the Presiding Bishop of the area to serve in United Methodist Churches or ecumenical shared ministries or are hired by ecumenical agencies shall have the right of participation as defined in the Book of Discipline. Collegial means in association with the AUMC.

INDIGENOUS: Indigenous persons in The Alaska United Methodist Conference who have been ordained by a United Methodist bishop, or who have been ordained by another church in ministerial communion with The United Methodist Church when the orders of such a person are recognized and accepted by the Presiding Bishop, who apply for membership and who are accepted for membership by the bishop shall be clergy members in full connection of The Alaska United Methodist Conference.

As provided in ¶588 of the 2008 Book of Discipline, any other portion of the Discipline notwithstanding, there shall be a Council of Native Elders (the Council). The Council shall have the right to recommend to the bishop Alaska indigenous persons as candidates for ordination as elders and deacons. The bishop, in consultation with the AUMC Superintendent, shall have the authority to act on the recommendation. The bishop may appoint indigenous persons to be members of the Council. Candidates for ordination approved through this process shall be ordained by the bishop at an ordination service during the time of the annual conference of the AUMC.

R2.01 . . . COVENANT STATEMENT: The Alaska United Methodist Conference at its 1996 annual conference established the right of full ministerial membership. As we enter this time of transition toward conference membership, it is important as persons, lay and clergy of the AUMC in this conference, to affirm what it means to be The Alaska United Methodist Conference of The United Methodist Church. As persons fully aware of the expanded opportunities for ministry in The Alaska United Methodist Conference, and with the knowledge that because of that opportunity we will become a different body, some of whom will be full members and others who will be affiliate members of The Alaska United Methodist Conference, we covenant together to

- pray for the well-being of each person and their ministry and pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in this emerging conference and its leaders
- recognize the unique nature of our conference and to work against any process or perception that would unnecessarily highlight the differentiation between the members and the affiliates and thus fragment our community.
- acknowledge and respect the theological, cultural, professional and gender diversity that we represent, by modeling inclusiveness at all levels, conscientiously respecting professional boundaries both in our personal lives and in our corporate life together and actively upholding and affirming each other's ministries.

- participate, to the best of our ability, in conference activities so that our connections with each other will be strengthened through genuine support and accountability.
- be assertive when we feel we have been wronged, stay in dialogue when disagreements arise, utilize the process set forth in our Discipline, recognize and adhere to the lines of authority expressed therein and strive to be fair and kind in our speech and our process
- actively welcome and encourage new members, both temporary and permanent, while respecting and listening to the insights and experience of our established members.

"Support without accountability promotes moral weakness; accountability without support is a form of cruelty." (2008 Discipline, ¶ 101: "General Rules and Social Principles")

We the people of God called United Methodist, in ministry in The Alaska United Methodist Conference, grounded in the creative power of the living Word, and immersed in the grace of God through Jesus the Christ, commit ourselves to this covenant. May we truly be to each other and to the world the body of Christ.

R2.03...SUPERINTENDENCY: If the presiding bishop appoints more than one person to superintend the work of the Church in the AUMC, then there shall be formed a Superintending Team (Team). The Team shall consist of those persons appointed by the bishop to superintend the Church in the AUMC. The Team shall form its own organization and shall choose for itself, under the supervision of the bishop, how it shall divide the work of superintending. However, each church in the AUMC will receive clear and prompt information about which member of the Team is to be that church's primary contact among the Team members for advice and assistance as required.

The Team will choose for itself which member shall perform the superintending functions specified in these rules, and on any body of the AUMC which requires membership of the AUMC superintendent, any one or more members of the Team may represent the Team. However, if more than one Team member attends a meeting of such a body, then only one will be empowered with vote on those bodies on which the superintendent has a vote. In the interest of continuity and order the Team is encouraged to maintain consistent representation on each AUMC body providing for membership of a superintendent.

R2.04...SUPERINTENDENT'S COMPENSATION: If one person is appointed to be the Superintendent of the AUMC, then the Superintendent's salary will be established by the Professional Ministries Unit at 150% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC) for the most recent year for which information is available from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits if no parsonage is provided to the Superintendent. If a parsonage is provided, then the Superintendent's salary will be 120% of the CAC. In any event, the Superintendent will be provided with an additional allowance of four percent (4%) of compensation per year for utility expenses. These amounts will be computed at such time as to be included in the budget recommendation the Council on Finance and Administration presents to the AUMC for establishing the conference budget for the succeeding calendar year, and the Superintendent's compensation will not be changed at any other time.

R2.05 . . . INSTITUTION AND AGENCY MEMBERS: Institutions and agencies related to the AUMC and/or the GBGM shall be fully franchised in the AUMC and shall be allowed two (2) voting members (one lay person and one clergy), both of whom shall be members of The United Methodist Church in accordance with constitutional requirements (Disc., 2008, ¶586.5). The AUMC may authorize national workers, pastors of ecumenical parishes, official visitors of other denominations, and ordained United Methodist clergy who are not otherwise members of the AUMC to be accorded the same privilege.

R2.25 . . . EQUAL MEMBERSHIP: In order to achieve equality of lay and clergy membership at the annual conference, the Presiding Bishop and AUMC Superintendent may appoint a committee each year to select lay persons to equalize membership (Disc., 2008, ¶32).

XIII. QUALIFICATIONS AND GUIDELINES

A. Qualifications for Advance Special Salary Support/Covenant Relationships

Those missionaries who qualify for salary support through the Advance shall:

1. Serve local churches with less than 200 members.
2. Serve local churches with budgets less than $150,000 raised locally excluding debt retirement. (For locations which qualify for COLA by Equitable Salary standards, the maximum shall be $150,000 plus the COLA.)
3. Serve local churches which are able to maintain a parsonage or housing allowance.
4. Receive a salary not more than 10% above the minimum cash base salary (before COLA and years of experience are added) established by the Equitable Compensation Guidelines set at the Annual Meeting. (Exceptions to this shall be the first five years of a new ministry and Native Ministries and crisis situations).
5. Be recommended by the Equitable Compensation Committee for approval by the Administrative Unit and the Conference Superintendent.

B. Guidelines for Parsonage Standards

Property Ownership: If a parsonage is provided, it should be owned by the local charge or a Board of Trustees of the Alaska United Methodist Conference. Also, flexibility should be allowed so that a pastor and congregation can work out an arrangement whereby a housing allowance is provided in lieu of a parsonage.

The House: At least four bedrooms; a basement with exit where possible; house plan should be flexible to allow for differing size families; family room, at least two full bathrooms; adequate storage; large living room; adequate weather stripping and insulation; screens on windows that open; double garage, not necessarily heated; dining area suitable for family and entertaining; sit-down eating space in the kitchen; a wood stove would be a desirable feature. New parsonages should be handicap accessible.

Location: Preferable within walking distance of the church building, but not more than three miles away.

Furnishings: Household personal items should be provided by the parsonage family. Heavy furniture and major appliances in good working order should be provided by the church including: beds, tables, chairs, sofa, freezer, washer and dryer, refrigerator, dishwasher, disposal, chests and dressers, drapes, floor coverings, lawn mower where needed, fire extinguisher, smoke alarms. Painting (in and out), carpet deep cleaning, should be scheduled on a four-year basis or change of pastor.

Appliances and Furnishings Allowance: Each parsonage family shall have available to them $1000 each appointive year to be used at the discretion of pastor and parsonage committee for appliances and furnishings as listed above. In the first year of appointment, this amount shall be available at the time of arrival of the parsonage family where possible. The Trustees shall keep a record of the date of purchase and repair of all appliances, including the heating system, and of all painting and decorating, inside and out. The Superintendent shall ask for the Parsonage Report at the annual Charge Conference meeting.

Garage and Grounds: If possible, a garage shall be provided with adequate lights and electrical outlets and sufficient space for gardening and lawn equipment, bicycles, etc. This should be provided with easy to operate door. Any damage to the parsonage or grounds caused by any household pet shall be repaired or replaced at the expense of the parsonage occupants. Excessive damage, beyond normal wear, to the parsonage caused by the parsonage family shall be repaired, replaced, or paid for by the pastor.

Maintenance Fund: A revolving fund of $1000 shall be available for maintenance repairs and upkeep as authorized by the trustees. For most churches, this should be a trust account drawn on when needed, not necessarily budgeted in full every year.

Insurance: Replacement value of the parsonage should be the guide for insurance coverage. Insurance on the pastor's personal items should be provided by the pastor.

Parsonage Committee: The PPR Chair, the Trustee Chair, the Pastor and family shall meet at least once annually to review parsonage needs and existing conditions.

Utilities: Full cost of utilities are to be provided for each parsonage, when the pastor lives in the parsonage.

An Encouragement to All: We recognize that comfortable surroundings in the home contribute to the happiness, health, and effectiveness of the parsonage family and the pastor in their work for the whole church. We encourage that each parish will do its very best in providing such a home.

C. Guidelines for Dealing with the Abuse of Power and Authority of the Clergy Office in Areas Relating to Clergy Sexual Misconduct

(This document is not intended to supersede nor misconstrue the Discipline of the United Methodist Church or Alaska State Law, both of which do clearly supersede anything herein.) The pastoral office is a position of great trust and responsibility and can be a position of significant authority and power over others. We would like to believe that no ordained clergy person would violate the trust and power of the office for sexual gratification. Yet the experience of the church is that it does happen. Persons in pastoral roles may violate the trust given them in many ways, but these guidelines deal specifically with the abuse of the power of the pastoral office by those who engage in sexual misconduct, and in particular in those cases where there are persons who are, or perceive themselves to be, victims of this misconduct.

It is recognized that clergy persons are also vulnerable human beings and can themselves be the victims in cases of sexual misconduct. In any case, the whole church must always be concerned for both the legal and spiritual care of the pastor. Still, history indicates that concern for those victimized by inappropriate clergy conduct has often been inadequate. The primary purpose of these guidelines is to provide justice and care for such persons.

For the purpose of this paper, clergy sexual misconduct shall be defined as "Unethical sexual activity, a form of sexual abuse by clergy persons." This includes sexual abuse of children and youth, affairs with counselees, infidelity, promiscuity (e.g. repeated sexual advances or actions), sexual harassment, and other inappropriate behavior. Such activity breaks the sacred trust inherent in our ordination. These guidelines are for clergy appointed to the Alaska United Methodist Conference.

a. Theological Reflections

One of the on-going tasks of Christian community is to understand our life theologically. This is as true in matters of human sexuality, its potential for expressing love and commitment to God, the other person and oneself, and its potential for abuse, as anywhere else.

We affirm that:

1. God creates persons in the Divine image, male and female.
2. Women and men are equal in the eyes of God.
3. The human body is good, a special part of the divine creation. It is the temple in which the Holy Spirit dwells and a place where the Word is made flesh.
4. Human sexuality is an integral part of our humanity. While profoundly personal, it has social dimensions as well. Its physical, emotional, and spiritual expression in relation to others ought to be based on a loving commitment and accountability to God, the other person, and oneself.
5. God calls persons to wholeness through Jesus Christ and to participation in the Body of Christ, the community of faith whose central quality is redemptive love.
6. The whole church receives and accepts the call of God to embody and carry forth Christ's ministry in the world. Ordination originates in God's will and purpose for the church. There are persons within the church community whose gifts, graces, and promise of future usefulness are observable to the community, who respond to God's call and offer themselves in leadership as ordained ministers.(Par. 402, 1988 Discipline) In this role, persons are entrusted with responsibility to care for those they serve and not to misuse this role to the detriment of any.
7. Violation of the pastoral office by inappropriate sexual conduct is a sin against God the victim(s), oneself and the redemptive community.

This violation:

- causes potentially serious psychological, spiritual, and emotional harm to the victim(s);
- reveals the brokenness of the perpetrator;
- betrays Christ and the pastoral office in that it abuses the power and authority of ministry by changing it from healing and redemption to exploitation and gratification, and tarnishes the symbol of Christ as healer and Savior; and
- rends the local parish as the whole body of Christ in ways which require special efforts for healing the deep wounds.

8. Because of God's grace and forgiveness, healing can occur for the victim(s), the offender, and the community.

These affirmations which have grown out of our life together within the covenant community are also reflected in the following statements from the 1992 Discipline (Par. 431).

It is to be expected that ordained persons shall:

- Nurture and cultivate spiritual disciplines and patterns of holiness...
- Be committed to and engage in leading the ministry of the whole church in loving service to humankind...

- For the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world and the most effective witness to the Christian gospel, and in consideration of his/her influence as a minister, be willing to make a complete dedication of himself/herself to the highest ideals of Christian life; and to this end, agree to exercise responsible self-control by personal habits conducive to bodily health, mental and emotional maturity, fidelity in marriage and celibacy in singleness social responsibility, and growth in grace and the knowledge and love of God.
- Be persons in whom the community can place trust and confidence...
- Be accountable to the United Methodist Church, accept its Discipline and authority, abide by the demands of the special relationship of its ordained ministers, and be faithful to their vows as ordained ministers of the church of God.

Any breach of professional ethics is a misuse of the trust which traditionally has been given to the office. Furthermore, sexual misconduct involving the misuse of the authority of the clerical office, often leaves the victim with the burden of guilt, anger, betrayal, and rejection. Often the victim bears the burden of proof before appropriate action can be taken. Any such sexual misconduct in the context of the clergy/lay relationship shall be seen as an offense by the clergy person who then bears the responsibility for victim restitution and faces disciplinary action. This is particularly significant in clergy/lay relationships because of the power dynamics involved.

Clergy persons involved in any form of sexual misconduct have breached their ordination vows. Christian, professional, and legal standards inform clergy behavior. For instance, professional standards of counseling prohibit any sexual contact with counselees. When a clergy person uses the influence of his/her role and engages in sexual misconduct, it is an irresponsible and unethical act which takes advantage of the vulnerability of another. Clergy have a responsibility not to take advantage of persons in this way and not to engage in sexual activity with them.

These guidelines refer to clergy sexual misconduct. In the event the alleged offender is the Superintendent, then "the Bishop" shall be substituted for "the Superintendent" in all such cases.

b. Procedures for Misconduct with Children and Youth

1. Sexual activity with children and youth is a chargeable offense under Para. 2623, Discipline. In the event an allegation of such activity is made against any person in an office listed in Para. 2623(1), Discipline, the person to whom the allegation is made shall immediately report the allegation to the appropriate public or police agency as required by law. Charges may be brought and an investigation and other appropriate action shall proceed according to Paragraphs 2622-2627, Discipline, without regard to any criminal charges that may be initiated by civil authorities.
2. Sexual activity with children and youth is a crime under state law. In the event a clergy person is arrested, charged by information, or indicted for a crime involving any sexual offense, that person shall also be charged under Para. 2623, Discipline, and appropriate action taken under Paragraphs 2622-2627, Discipline. If the criminal charges are dismissed or the person is found to be not guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of the criminal charge, the Superintendent shall continue the proceedings under Paragraphs 2622-2627, Discipline, and make a determination whether a preponderance of the evidence shows that, even though the person may not have been legally culpable, the level of impropriety is sufficient to constitute a chargeable offense under Par. 2623. If the person is found guilty of the criminal offense, then the Superintendent shall initiate the process of expulsion from the pastoral ministry.

c. Procedures for Misconduct with Adults

When sexual misconduct is alleged, it shall be brought to the attention of those in authority, and the following procedures shall be followed: (¶362 of the Discipline describes the grievance procedures.)

1. Allegations of sexual misconduct shall be made to the Superintendent in the form of a complaint. A complaint may be brought only by the person claiming to have been personally offended by the conduct, or by a person with first-hand knowledge of the conduct. Although a complaint may be brought verbally, the Superintendent may not respond to the complaint unless the complainant signs a document which clearly states the allegations which describe the offensive conduct. The Superintendent or any other person may assist the complainant in the preparation of the written complaint. If the complainant is unwilling to put the complaint in writing, the Superintendent shall inform the complainant that the verbal allegations will not be investigated and the grievances will not be redressed.

2. The complainant shall be encouraged to bring a support person to any meeting or hearing at any point in the process. Any meeting between the complainant and the alleged offender shall take place in a neutral location.

3. The Conference Superintendent shall promptly:

a). Meet again with the complainant in the presence of an ordained elder who is a member of the Professional Ministries Unit and/or the Bishop. At this meeting the complainant should be assured that the allegations are being taken very seriously by the Conference. The complainant shall be asked to verify the complaint with the words, "I declare under penalty of perjury that the allegations contained in this complaint are true."

b). Determine if there is probable cause to proceed with the investigation of the complaint. If the complainant refuses to put the allegations in writing or to sign or verify the complaint, the Superintendent may not respond to the complaint.

c). With the complainant's knowledge, meet in person with the respondent, i.e., the person to whom this procedure is being applied, provide the respondent with a copy of the complaint, and informally discuss the allegations with the respondent.

d). Meet formally with both parties (i.e., the complainant and the respondent), the Bishop of the Alaska United Methodist Conference, and clergy member of the Professional Ministries Unit. Not less than 20 days prior to the date of this formal conference both parties shall be informed that they may have one person at the conference with them who has the right of advocacy, and that the conference will be recorded.

e). After the formal conference the Bishop, Superintendent, and clergy member of the Professional Ministries Unit shall confer, make a determination as to the truth of the allegations, and issue written findings as to their determination.

(1) If they find that the allegations are insubstantial (i.e., where the harm alleged is of little or no substance) or false, the respondent may choose to have the entire record of the proceeding expunged from his/her personnel record, or the respondent may choose an appropriate statement of the exonerations included in the record.

(2) If they find that there is probable cause to bring charges and convene a Committee on Investigation under ¶2703 (1), (3), or (4), notice of the finding shall be provided to the chair of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee (PPRC) of the local church served by the respondent or other appropriate supervisor, the Bishop of the Respondent's home Annual Conference, and the Mission Personnel Resources Program Department of the General Board of Global Ministries.

4. In the AUMC, responsibility shall be assumed by the following:

a.) Colleagues in the ministry:

(1.) Clergy colleagues hold a special covenant of mutual responsibility. When a pastor has knowledge of a colleague's sexual misconduct, the appropriate steps of intervention should be taken. This shall mean reporting alleged sexual misconduct to the Conference Superintendent. (Or in cases of alleged sexual misconduct against the Conference Superintendent, the Bishop.)

(2.) Where a colleague has been involved in sexual misconduct, and the case is being or has been resolved, the other members in the covenant must search for ways to and actively practice the reconciliation.

(3.) Cases of sexual misconduct will be kept in strictest confidentiality within the specifically designated group and persons charged with the responsibility for bringing justice and reconciliation. All clergy should actively prevent and discourage gossip, especially among clergy peers.

(4.) In cases where the situation has proceeded to Step 3.e.2 above, depending upon the seriousness of the complaint, the Bishop and Superintendent may choose to remove the accused clergy person from his/her ministerial duties. When a clergy person is removed from his/her ministerial duties due to sexual misconduct, a report shall be made by the Bishop or Conference Superintendent at the next clergy session to inform the clergy of the actions taken. In such cases, as colleagues in ministry, other clergy will covenant to honor this decision and refrain from inviting that person to perform ministerial duties in our churches and institutions.

(5.) The accused clergy person will have assigned to him/her a trained support person to be in ministry with them, and will receive regular informational contact with the Conference Superintendent.

b.) The Local Church or other Hiring Bodies:

(1.) Local Pastor Parish Committees will be informed of the policies dealing with clergy sexual misconduct.

(2.) Matters of clergy sexual misconduct must be dealt with in strictest confidentiality in local churches.

(3.) The PPRC with the Conference Superintendent (or in cases of alleged sexual misconduct against the Conference Superintendent, the Bishop) shall assist in the reconciliation process of the persons affected and help the victim(s) find healing within the context of church community.

(4.) The Conference Superintendent (or in cases of alleged sexual misconduct against the Conference Superintendent, the Bishop) shall help the PPRC define its role in responding to a spouse.

(5.) The PPRC may secure one of the lay observers from the PMU or another lay person to help find resources within the church and larger community for a spouse of the offending clergy person.

(6.) In cases where clergy sexual misconduct has been substantiated and persons remain active clergy in the AUMC, full information of sexual misconduct and subsequent actions taken shall be kept in the clergy person's permanent record in the Conference Office. Such information shall be shared with present and future Pastor-Parish Relation Committees, and when clergy return to their home annual conferences, documentation of clergy sexual misconduct will be included in the files sent to the home conference. This material may be sent to the PPRCs of previous appointments at the discretion of the Bishop and the Superintendent.

(7.) Where sexual misconduct has become a public issue, the Conference Superintendent and the Professional Ministries Unit need to join with the PPRC to provide emotional, liturgical and institutional means of healing.

d. Concluding Statement

The procedures outlined in this position paper are limited to addressing inappropriate sexual conduct of those clergy persons whose actions have been reported. The best solution to the problems caused by clergy sexual misconduct is the self-discipline of each clergy person. Such self-discipline takes the Christian standards and ordination vows seriously.

Personal integrity and mature and professionally responsible conduct must be brought to all relationships by every clergy person in the Conference. When relational and sexual difficulties are present in a pastor's personal and/or professional life, counseling is appropriate and should be sought.

By the very nature of the disciplinary procedures outlined in this paper, the concept of a single "victim" is too limiting. When sexual misconduct occurs, there are many victims. The spouse and families of the persons who are involved in illicit sexual liaisons are victims. Congregations who must live with the interpersonal and the community impact of inappropriate sexual behavior are victims. The offender/victimizer is in one sense a "victim" of his or her own deeply troubled personality. Pastors who are not responsible for the misconduct find themselves living with the consequences arising from the misconduct of a brother or sister. When friends in the ministry are caught in the web of sexual misconduct, there is a tension between caring for a personal friend involved in questionable sexual liaisons and caring for the health and authenticity of the ordained ministry. It is possible to protect a friend, and thereby to perpetuate a relationship or pattern of behavior which is destructive to many others. Ultimately, the credibility and practice of the Christian faith have been compromised.

Not all of the victim(s) are included in the disciplinary and restorative procedure of the ordained ministry. Yet all are hurt when sexual misconduct has occurred. Those who take the connectional covenant seriously and who value the vows of ordination will assume responsibility for the whole church in the way they live with their sexuality. This paper intends to provide clear guidelines which will strengthen the covenant and ministry we share together.

Alaska Conference Board of Pensions Health Policies

1 Active Participants:

2 Mandatory blended funding of clergy by salary paving unit (local churches and extension
3 ministry where annual conference has pension responsibility) for all full-time appointments
4 (includes retired pastors of other conferences serving Alaska if receiving at least the minimum
5 salary of the conference or plan compensation that equals or exceeds 125% of minimum salary).
6 Each salary paving unit will be billed the same pooled cost for each eligible participant no matter
7 of age or enrollment status.

9 If dependents participate an additional $150 monthly will be billed the salary paving unit with 10 the clergy participant responsible for this cost through a salary reduction with salary paving unit.

11
12 Clergy appointed less than full-time are not eligible for conference health plans.

13
14 Full-time lay employees of the conference office, local churches and conference agencies are 15 eligible if salary-paving unit signs sub-adoption agreement with conference.

17 Retired Participants:

18 As a missionary conference there are no retired members.

20 Other Policies:

21 Alaska Conference does not have any authority to alter the home conference relationship with an
22 elder. If a pastor is serving in Alaska and needs a different relationship (such as leave of 23 absence, family leave, sabbatical or incapacity leave) it must be granted by the home conference
24 board of ordained ministry. All changes in status must revert to the home conference so no health
25 provisions are provided.

26
27 The Alaska Conference does not participate in the smaller employer exemption to Medicare being 28 secondary coverage for those active pastors that are 65 or over. The pastor and spouse, if 65 or over,
29 will remain on the active plan.

30
31 As mentioned in the first paragraph if a retired pastor from another conference is appointed full-time
32 they will be treated the same as an active pastor for health insurance purposes.

33
34 At the beginning of the calendar year the blended funding cost is determined by taking number of 35 family participants times the monthly family rate less $150 plus number of single participants times
36 the single monthly rate and divide this number by the total number of participants.

37 Formula for blended monthly cost:

38
$$(((#family \times (\text{monthly family rate} - $150)) + (#single \times \text{monthly single rate})) / \text{total # of}$$

39 participants
